IV. DISCUSSION

Question 1: DGW's strategy is to diversify product lines, reducing revenue dependence on one main industry, but currently ICT still contributes a fairly high proportion in DGW's revenue structure. So what is the plan going forward?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: The contribution of the phone and computer segments is still the main one, but the proportion has gradually decreased over time, mainly due to stronger growth in other segments. Looking at this planned year of 2024, new segments will grow significantly compared to phones and laptops.

The ICT industry has been operating for many years, has quite perfected its channels and will only continue to add more products to better utilize distribution channels.

With the FMCG industry, DGW focuses on F&B products, home care and personal care.

Question 2: Assess the impact of exchange rates on the Company's business activities?

General Director Dang Kien Phuong: Exchange rates are currently a very hot story for many businesses with foreign currency-related activities.

With nearly 30 years of business experience, DGW has come up with a good exchange rate hedging plan. Thanks to that, the exchange rate situation does not affect DGW's operations.

Question 3 Share about the prospects of the pawnshop segment?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: Pawnbroking is just one of Vietmoney's activities. In addition, Vietmoney also provides small business credit, consistent with DCW's FMCG distribution orientation. Vietmoney also has a system to prepare used computers and mobile phones for business. According to DGW data, this market is very large, for example the iPhone life cycle can be up to 6 years, through many owners, thereby creating a large number of transactions.

Question 4: Market size and expectations for protective equipment and FMCG in 2024?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: Achison specializes in providing accessories and protective equipment for factories. Currently this company accounts for 10% of the market, which is not too high. Not to mention, when compared to much broader markets from Asian brands, Achison has not touched it. And Vietnam becoming a regional and world production center will create opportunities for high-speed long-term growth in this segment.

Question 5: Used products have problems with VAT invoices. How does the company evaluate this issue?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: This is the biggest problem with used products. Currently, about 99% of the market is located in small retail stores and there is no tax, while DGW must comply with legal regulations, which is a disadvantage.

DGW is still confident because of D-Care and there are still certain customer files willing to pay higher prices to ensure quality.

Question 6: Why does DGW set a growth target of 80% in the consumer goods industry in 2024?

General Director Dang Kien Phuong: In 2023, the FMCG segment has grown 100% over the same period and DGW is confident it will grow another 70%.

With FMCG, DGW defines a clear strategy in the segments of Home care, Personal care and F&B. DGW is only participating in F&B in 2023, while this segment is very large and DGW is only distributing on MT (modern trade channels), while there is still a lot of growth potential on On-trade (distribution for local consumption) and expanded distribution for FMCG.

Question 7: After how many years, can DGW achieve the same after-tax profit as before the Covid-19 epidemic?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: DGW's long-term vision is double-digit growth for many years, with one-year DGW's after-tax profit growth was 240%. In recent years, with many difficulties, DGW recorded a decline. But when looking back at the results, there is still growth compared to the pandemic season and is consistent with DGW's long-term growth goals. Shareholders can try calculating based on the growth figure of 15-20% to know how many years it will reach pre-epidemic levels.

Question 8: 2023 did not meet the plan but still has ESOP, why?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: The ESOP program was interrupted last year and has just returned this year. This is a great source of encouragement for the staff. DGW is not afraid to set high plans and in fact the results are better than other listed companies in the same industry. Therefore, DGW plans to issue ESOPs in only 50% of good years.

Question 9: Which segment will compensate for the slowing growth of the ICT segment?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: Looking at the medium term, the ICT segment still has the opportunity for single-digit growth. Citing indicators between the Vietnamese and Thai markets, such as the total laptop market is equal, but Vietnam's population is one and a half times that of Thailand, and Vietnam's economy is smaller but growing faster. Therefore, when people have enough conditions and enterprises expand their businesses, this segment will grow.

By 2025, the contribution of the phone and laptop segment may decrease to 65%, although it is still growing.

Question 10: Traditional business chains are facing difficulties, while online channels are growing strongly, does this have any impact on DGW? Does DGW have plans to distribute to smaller retailers?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: In addition to large retail chains, DGW is currently also selling to smaller retailers, as well as selling to online platforms. In addition, it also operates the D2C (direct to consumer) business - representing manufacturers to open genuine stores on online platforms and serving consumers directly. DGW already has e-commercial for a long time.

Question 11: Please share more about the revenue and profit contribution of new M&A segments to 2024 business results?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: With Achison, we plan its revenue will be VND1,000 billion and VND 50 billion in profit after tax, corresponding to a higher profit margin than DGW. Vietmoney is only breaking even at the store level.

Question 12: Vietmoney's expectation profit in 2024?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: Vietmoney brings in quite low service revenue and is not yet profitable, so it has not accounted for revenue into any specific group. As for the used goods business, it is only in the research area and has not yet generated significant revenue.

In the future, when Vietmoney has more stores and greater revenue, there will be a separate report for Vietmoney.

Question 13: DGW's 2024 theme is Level Up, specifically what can the company Level Up?

General Director Dang Kien Phuong:

1. DGW Level Up about the system:

DGW is the first Vietnamese enterprise to successfully go live ERP SAP Sales 1, and in 2023 will also be the first Vietnamese enterprise to successfully go live ERP S4/HANA

Ms. Phuong talked in more detail about the investment level as well as the superiority (highest) of S4/HANA in management.

2. Level Up in Warehousing + Automation: ...,

3. Level Up office: move and expand office Head office in SG and branch in Hanoi with more than 2000m2 of office space...

4. Level Up: Digitize internal connections, paperless...

Question 14: Does the company have any M&A plans in the near future? What business plans do companies that have M&A have?

Chairman of BOD Doan Hong Viet: M&A is an important development direction. In particular, DGW's formula for success is to provide target companies with a back-end platform and help optimize operations. Achison is a typical example. After acquiring DGW, costs have been reduced and the revenue target is 1,000 billion VND for 2024, a growth of 50%.

DGW always aims to have 2-3 M&A deals per year, because M&A will help DGW move faster, taking advantage of DGW's strengths in market knowledge, as well as a solid back-end platform.

Question 15: "Green" and ESG are very popular words at recent shareholders' meetings. Digiworld also mentions ESG a lot, so without manufacturing, will Digiworld do green transportation or is there something else?

Mrs. To Hong Trang – Member of BOD: ESG (Environment - Society - Governance). At DGW we do it in reverse order, we focus on "G" (governance) first: corporate and financial management capacity. DGW is the first private company go live succeeded.

For us, administration and systems not only help improve workloads and human resources, but they also ensure system safety.

S: DGW's most important audience is still people. DGW hires the world's leading human resources consulting organizations to advise on all structural human resource systems at work such as building job descriptions, establishing job matrices and building systems.

salaries, bonuses, targets, etc. This shows that we aim to build a public, transparent, and clear human resources organization that ensures the rights of workers. And especially interested in "Work Balance Life".

DGW has organized the running race "Steps to Nurture Green Seeds" for 4 years. In 2023, the participants reached the number of 3,000 runners more than expected. This shows that it touched the hearts of DGW staffs and people. This race contributed to creating scholarships for students to train software engineers.

E: We aim for things that are very practical in our business activities, for example, we reuse pallets, reuse cardboard for packaging...
