A shareholder or a group of shareholders as specified in Clause 2 of this Article has the right to request the convening of a General Meeting of Shareholders in case the Board of Directors seriously violates the rights of shareholders, the obligations of the manager, or makes decisions that exceed the authorized powers.
4. The request to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be in writing and include the following information: full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code, or legal document number of the organization, and head office address for institutional shareholders; the number of shares and the registration time of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the entire group of shareholders, and the percentage of ownership in the total shares of the company; the basis and reasons for requesting the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Attached to the convening request must be documents and evidence of the violations of the Board of Directors, the extent of the violation, or the decision exceeding the authorized power.
5. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding 05% or more of the total number of ordinary shares has the right to nominate persons to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. The nomination of persons to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board shall be carried out as follows:
 - a. Ordinary shareholders forming a group to nominate persons to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must notify the attending shareholders of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - b. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, a shareholder or group of shareholders as prescribed in this Clause has the right to nominate one or more persons, as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders, as candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. In the event that the number of candidates nominated by a shareholder or group of shareholders is less than the number of candidates they are entitled to nominate as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board, and other shareholders.

Article 13. Obligations of Shareholders

Ordinary shareholders have the following obligations:

1. Fully pay the committed number of shares on time.
2. Not withdraw the capital contributed by ordinary shares from the Company in any form, except in cases where the shares are repurchased by the Company or another person. In the event that a shareholder withdraws part or all of the contributed share capital in contravention of the provisions of this Clause, that shareholder and related parties in the Company shall be jointly liable for the debts and other property obligations of the Company to the extent of the value of the shares withdrawn and any damages incurred.
3. Comply with the Company's Charter and the Company's internal management regulations.

4. Comply with the Resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
5. Maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the Company as prescribed in the Company's Charter and the law; only use the provided information to exercise and protect their legitimate rights and interests; strictly prohibit disseminating or copying and sending the information provided by the Company to other organizations and individuals.
6. Attend the General Meeting of Shareholders and exercise the right to vote/elect through the following forms:
 - a. Attend and vote/elect in person at the meeting;
 - b. Authorize another individual or organization to attend and vote/elect at the meeting;
 - c. Attend and vote/elect via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
 - d. Send a ballot/vote to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
7. Be personally responsible when acting on behalf of the Company in any capacity for performing any of the following acts:
 - a. Violating the law;
 - b. Conducting business and other transactions for personal gain or to serve the interests of another organization or individual;
 - c. Paying debts before their due date in anticipation of financial risks to the Company.
8. Fulfill other obligations as stipulated by applicable law.

Article 14. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders, comprised of all shareholders with voting rights, is the highest decision-making body of the Company. The General Meeting of Shareholders convenes annually and within four (04) months from the fiscal year's end. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter, the Board of Directors may decide to extend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders if necessary, but not exceeding 06 months from the fiscal year's end. In addition to the annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may convene extraordinary meetings. The location of the General Meeting of Shareholders is determined as the place where the chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam.
2. The Board of Directors convenes the annual General Meeting of Shareholders and selects a suitable location. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders decides on matters as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter, particularly approving the audited annual financial statements. In cases where the Audit Report on the Company's annual financial statements contains material exceptions, adverse or disclaimer audit opinions, the Company must invite a representative of the approved auditing organization that conducted the audit of the Company's financial statements to attend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and the aforementioned representative of the approved auditing organization is responsible for attending the Company's annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following circumstances:
 - a. The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;
 - b. The number of remaining members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number prescribed by law;

- c. At the request of a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law; the request to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders must be in writing, clearly stating the reason and purpose of the meeting, with sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders or the request document prepared in multiple copies and collecting sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders;
 - d. At the request of the Supervisory Board;
 - e. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
4. Convening an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders
- a. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within 60 days from the date the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board is as stipulated in point b, clause 3 of this Article or upon receipt of a request as stipulated in points c and d, clause 3 of this Article.
The Board of Directors must announce the circumstance where an independent member of the Board of Directors no longer meets the standards and conditions at the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders or convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional or replacement independent members of the Board of Directors within 06 months from the date of receiving notification from the relevant independent member of the Board of Directors;
 - b. In the event that the Board of Directors fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Clause 4(a) of this Article, within the subsequent 30-day period, the Supervisory Board shall, in lieu of the Board of Directors, convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.
 - c. In the event that the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Clause 4(b) of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders defined in Clause 3(c) of this Article shall have the right to request a company representative to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.
In this circumstance, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the Enterprise Registration Certificate authority to oversee the order, procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and issuing decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All expenses for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These expenses do not include costs incurred by shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.
 - d. Procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders are as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.
5. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall pass resolutions within its authority by means of voting at the meeting or through written opinions. The General Meeting of Shareholders may be conducted in person, online, or a combination of both.

Article 15. Rights and Obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 1. The General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights and obligations:

 - t. Approval, amendment, and supplementation of the Internal Governance Regulations and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board;
 - u. Other matters as prescribed by law and these Articles of Association.
3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted upon at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16. Authorizing participation in General Meeting of Shareholders

- 1. Shareholders, duly authorized representatives of shareholders that are organizations, may directly attend the meeting or authorize one or more individuals or other organizations to attend the meeting or attend the meeting through one of the forms prescribed in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Enterprise Law. Shareholders that are organizations may only authorize a maximum of 03 duly authorized representatives to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 2. The authorization for individuals or organizations to represent shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. The authorization document shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of the authorization, the term of the authorization, and the signatures of the authorizing party and the authorized party.
Authorized attendees of the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the authorization document upon registration. In cases of re-authorization, the meeting attendee must also present the original duly authorization document of the shareholder or the duly authorized representative of the shareholder if the shareholder is an organization (if not previously registered with the Company).
- 3. Voting ballots/Election ballots of authorized meeting attendees within the authorized scope remain valid in the following circumstances:
 - a. The authorizing party has died, has limited civil act capacity, or has lost civil act capacity;
 - b. The authorizer has revoked the authorization appointment.
 - c. The authorizer has rescinded the authorized party's authority.
 This provision does not apply in the event the Company receives notification of one of the above events prior to the commencement of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the reconvening of the meeting.

Article 17. Changes of rights

- 1. The change or cancellation of special rights associated with a certain type of preference shares is effective when it is voted for by a number of shareholders that represent at least 65% of the votes. The GMS's resolution that contains adverse changes to the rights and obligations of preference shareholders may only be ratified if it is voted for by a number of participating preference shareholders that hold at least 75% of preference shares of the same type, or approved by a number of preference shareholders that hold at least 75% of preference shares of the same type in case of questionnaire survey.

2. The organization of a meeting of shareholders holding a class of preferred shares to approve the aforementioned change of rights is valid only when there are at least two shareholders (or their duly authorized representatives) holding at least 1/3 of the par value of the issued shares of that class. If the required number of representatives is not present, the meeting shall be reconvened within the next 30 days, and the holders of shares of that class (regardless of the number of persons and the number of shares) present in person or through duly authorized representatives shall be considered as meeting the quorum requirement. At the aforementioned meetings of preferred shareholders, holders of shares of that class present in person or through representatives may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class has equal voting rights at the aforementioned meetings.
3. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be implemented similarly to the provisions of Articles 19, 20, and 21 of this Charter.
4. Unless otherwise stipulated in the share issuance terms, the special rights attached to the classes of shares with preferential rights concerning some or all matters relating to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be altered when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 18. Convening, Agenda, and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual and extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors convenes extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 14 of this Charter.
2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall perform the following tasks:
 - a. Prepare the list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote/elect at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be compiled no later than [10 days] prior to the date of sending the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The company must announce the compilation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 days before the last registration date.
 - b. Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting.
 - c. Prepare the documents for the meeting.
 - d. Draft the Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the proposed content of the meeting.
 - dd. Determine the time and place of the meeting.
 - e. Notify and send the General Meeting of Shareholders notice to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;
 - g. Other tasks serving the general meeting.
3. The notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by a method ensuring delivery to the shareholder's contact address and shall be published on the Company's website and the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must send the notice of the meeting to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting no later than 21 days before the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is validly sent or delivered). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the documents related to the issues to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In the event that the documents are not enclosed with the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the notice of the meeting must specify the link to all meeting documents for shareholders to access, including:

- a. The meeting agenda and documents used in the meeting;
 - c. The list and details of the candidates in the case of electing members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board;
 - c. Voting/ballot papers;
 - d. Draft resolutions for each issue on the meeting agenda.
4. A shareholder or a group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter has the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and must be sent to the Company no later than 03 working days before the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of each type of share held by the shareholder, contact address, nationality, and Citizen Identity Card number, Identity Card number, Passport number, or other legally valid personal identification for individual shareholders; name, enterprise registration code or establishment decision number, and head office address for institutional shareholders; the number and type of shares held by that shareholder; and the issue proposed for inclusion in the meeting agenda.
5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to refuse the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in any of the following cases:
- a. The proposal is not submitted in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 05% of the ordinary shares as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter;
 - c. The proposed issue is not within the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the draft agenda and content of the meeting, except as prescribed in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal is officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for opening the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders may be held when the number of shareholders present represents more than 50% of the total voting shares.
2. In the event that the first meeting does not meet the conditions for proceeding as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice of the second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders may be held when the number of shareholders present represents at least 33% of the total voting shares.
3. In the event that the second meeting does not meet the quorum as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice of the third meeting must be sent within 20 days from the intended date of the second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall proceed regardless of the total number of votes of the shareholders present.

Article 20. Procedures for carrying out and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the opening of the meeting, the Company must carry out shareholder registration procedures and must continue registration until all eligible shareholders present have registered in the following order:
 - a. Upon registration, the Company shall issue each shareholder or duly authorized representative with voting rights a voting card/ballot/voting slip, stating the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the duly authorized representative's full name, and the number of votes/ballots of that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each item on the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by affirmative vote, negative vote, and abstention. The ballot counting results shall be announced by the Chairman/Ballot Counting Committee immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting shall elect individuals responsible for counting the ballots or supervising the ballot counting as proposed by the Chairman. The number of members of the Ballot Counting Committee shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the Chairman's proposal;
 - b. Shareholders, duly authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or proxies arriving after the meeting has commenced shall be entitled to register immediately and subsequently participate and vote/elect at the meeting immediately after registration. The Chairman shall not be obligated to pause the meeting for late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of matters already voted/elected upon shall remain unchanged.
2. The election of the Chairman, Secretary, Shareholder/Delegate Eligibility Verification Committee, and Ballot Counting Committee shall be governed as follows:
 - a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In the absence of the Chairman or if the Chairman is temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one among themselves to chair the meeting by majority vote. In case a Chairman cannot be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall facilitate the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a Chairman from among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;
 - b. Except as provided in point a of this clause, the person signing the convening notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the election of the Chairman of the meeting by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;
 - c. The Chairman shall appoint one or more persons to act as the Secretary of the meeting; Shareholder/Delegate Eligibility Verification Committee serving the meeting;
 - d. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the Ballot Counting Committee as proposed by the Chairman of the meeting.
3. The meeting agenda and content must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time allocated for each item in the meeting content.
4. The Chairman of the meeting has the authority to implement necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees.

- a. Arrangement of seating at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b. Ensure the safety of all individuals present at the meeting locations;
 - c. Facilitate shareholder participation (or continued participation) in the General Meeting of Shareholders. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full authority to modify the aforementioned measures and implement all necessary measures. Applicable measures may include issuing entry passes or employing other selection methods.
5. The convener or chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:
- a. Request all attendees to submit to inspections or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - b. Request competent authorities to maintain order during the meeting; expel from the General Meeting of Shareholders any individuals who fail to comply with the chairperson's directives, deliberately disrupt order, obstruct the normal proceedings of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.
6. The chairperson has the right to postpone the General Meeting of Shareholders, for which the maximum number of registered attendees has been reached, for a period not exceeding three working days from the intended commencement date, and may only postpone the meeting or change the meeting location under the following circumstances:
- a. The meeting location lacks sufficient and convenient seating for all attendees;
 - b. The communication facilities at the meeting location do not adequately allow participating shareholders to engage in discussions and voting;
 - c. An attendee obstructs or disrupts order, posing a risk to the fair and lawful conduct of the meeting.
7. In the event that the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another individual from among the attendees to replace the chairperson and preside over the meeting until its conclusion; all Resolutions passed at such a meeting shall be valid and enforceable.
8. In the event that the Company employs modern technology to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders via online meeting, the Company shall be responsible for ensuring shareholder participation and voting through electronic ballots or other electronic means as stipulated in Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, of the Government detailing the implementation of certain articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 21. Conditions for ratification of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A Resolution pertaining to the following content shall be passed if it receives the affirmative vote of shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders present and voting at the meeting, except as provided in Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
- a. Class of shares and the total number of shares of each class;
 - b. Changes to the business lines, trades, and sectors;
 - c. Changes to the Company's management organizational structure;
 - d. Investment projects or sale of assets with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement;

- dd. Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - e. Extension of the Company's operational duration;
 - g. Other matters stipulated in this Charter.
2. Resolutions are passed when they receive the affirmative vote of shareholders holding more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders present and voting at the meeting, except as provided in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.
 3. The voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted through cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes equal to the total number of shares held multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. The successful candidates for membership on the Board of Directors or as Supervisory Board members are determined based on the number of votes received, ranked from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate receiving the highest number of votes until the number of members stipulated in the Company's Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last position on the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, a re-election will be conducted among the candidates with equal votes, or a selection will be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.
 4. The Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed with 100% of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the order, procedures for convening the meeting and passing such resolutions violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the company's Charter.

Article 22. Authority and procedures for carrying out questionnaire survey for ratification of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Competence and procedures for obtaining shareholders' written opinions to pass Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with the following provisions:

1. The Board of Directors is entitled to obtain shareholders' written opinions for the adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following matters:
 - a) Amending and supplementing the contents of the company's Charter;
 - b) Approving, amending and supplementing the Regulations on Corporate Governance; the Regulations on the Operation of the Board of Directors; the Regulations on the Operation of the Supervisory Board;
 - c) The company's development orientation;
 - d) Types of shares and the total number of shares of each type;
 - e) Electing, dismissing, and removing members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;

 - g) Approving annual financial statements
 - h) Reorganizing and dissolving the company.
 - i) Changing industries, professions, and business fields;
 - j) Changing the company's management organizational structure;
 - k) Other matters when deemed necessary for the benefit of the Company.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare ballot papers, draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, explanatory documents for the draft resolutions, and send them to all shareholders with voting rights at least 10 days before the deadline for returning the ballot papers. The requirements and procedures for sending ballot papers and accompanying documents are implemented in accordance with the provisions of Clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.
3. Ballot papers must contain the following main contents:
 - a) Name, address of the head office, enterprise registration code;
 - b) Purpose of obtaining opinions;
 - c) Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual for individual shareholders; name, enterprise registration code or legal document number of the organization, address of the head office for institutional shareholders or full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual representing the institutional shareholder; the number of shares of each type and the number of voting shares of the shareholder;
 - d) Matters requiring opinions for decision-making;
 - e) Voting options including approval, disapproval, and abstention for each matter requiring opinions;
 - f) Deadline for returning the answered ballot papers to the Company;
 - g) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
4. Shareholders may send their answered ballot papers to the Company by mail, fax, or email as follows:
 - a) In the case of sending by mail, the answered ballot paper must be signed by the individual shareholder, the duly authorized representative or the legal representative of the institutional shareholder. Ballot papers sent to the Company must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and no one is allowed to open them before counting the votes;
 - b) In the case of sending by fax or email, the ballot papers sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;
 - c) Ballots submitted to the Company after the deadline specified in the ballot content, or opened in the case of mail and disclosed in the case of fax or email, are invalid. Ballots not returned are considered abstentions.
5. The Board of Directors counts the ballots and prepares the ballot counting minutes in the presence of the Supervisory Board or a shareholder not holding a management position in the Company. The ballot counting minutes must include the following main contents:
 - a) Name, head office address, enterprise registration code;
 - b) Purpose and matters requiring a resolution;
 - c) Number of shareholders with the total number of votes/ballots cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes/ballots, and the method of submitting votes/ballots, accompanied by an appendix listing the participating shareholders;
 - d) Total number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions for each issue, total number of votes for each candidate (if any);
 - e) Matters approved and the corresponding approval rate;
 - f) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the ballot counter, and the ballot counting supervisor.

Members of the Board of Directors, the ballot counter, and the ballot counting supervisor are jointly responsible for the honesty and accuracy of the ballot counting minutes; and jointly liable for any damages arising from decisions made based on dishonest or inaccurate ballot counting.

6. The ballot counting minutes and Resolution must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the end of the ballot counting. Sending the ballot counting minutes and Resolution can be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours from the end of the ballot counting.
7. Answered ballots, ballot counting minutes, adopted resolutions, and related documents attached to the ballots must be kept at the Company's head office.
8. A Resolution is passed through written shareholder consultation if it is approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders with voting rights, and has the same validity as a Resolution passed at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 23. Resolution, Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in another electronic form. The minutes must be written in Vietnamese and may also be written in a foreign language, including the following main contents:
 - a) Name, head office address, enterprise registration code;
 - b) Time and place of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c) Meeting agenda and content;
 - d) Full name of the chairperson and secretary;
 - e) Summary of the meeting proceedings and comments made at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each issue on the agenda;
 - f) Number of shareholders and total votes of shareholders attending the meeting, appendix of the shareholder registration list, and representatives of shareholders attending the meeting with the corresponding number of shares and votes;
 - g) Total number of votes for each voting matter, specifying the voting method, total valid and invalid votes, votes in favor, against, and abstentions; corresponding percentage of the total votes of shareholders attending the meeting;
 - h) Summary of votes for each candidate (if any);

 - c) Organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors.
 - d) Supervise the implementation of the Board of Directors' resolutions and decisions.
 - e) Preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - f) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.
4. In the event the Chairperson of the Board of Directors resigns or is dismissed or removed from office, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receipt of the resignation or dismissal.
5. In the event the Chairperson of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must authorize in writing another member to exercise the rights and obligations of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors in accordance with the principles stipulated in this Charter. In the absence of an authorized person or if the Chairperson of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is undergoing administrative handling measures at a compulsory detoxification center or compulsory educational institution, absconds from their place of residence, has limited or lost civil act capacity, experiences cognitive difficulties or difficulty controlling their behavior, is prohibited by the Court from holding a position, practicing a profession, or engaging in certain work, the remaining members shall elect one person among them to hold the position of Chairperson of the Board of Directors according to the principle of majority approval from the remaining members until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Article 30. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is elected in the first meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of conclusion of the Board of Directors election. This meeting is convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In the event that more than one member has the highest and equal number of votes or percentage of votes, the members shall elect one person among them, based on the majority principle, to convene the Board of Directors meeting.
2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors convenes the Board of Directors meeting in the following cases:
 - a) At the request of the Supervisory Board or an independent member of the Board of Directors;
 - b) At the request of the General Director or at least 05 other managers;
 - c) At the request of at least 02 members of the Board of Directors;
 - d) In other cases as stipulated by the Company's Charter.

4. The request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, matters to be discussed, and decisions within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of receipt of the request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article. In case the Board of Directors meeting is not convened as requested, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be liable for any damages incurred by the Company; the requesting party has the right to replace the Chairperson of the Board of Directors in convening the Board of Directors meeting.
6. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the convener of the Board of Directors meeting must send a meeting invitation no later than 05 working days prior to the meeting date. The meeting invitation must clearly specify the time and location of the meeting, the agenda, the matters to be discussed and decided upon. The meeting invitation must be accompanied by documents to be used at the meeting and the members' voting ballots.

The Board of Directors meeting invitation can be sent by letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as stipulated by the Company's Charter and must ensure delivery to the contact address of each Board of Directors member registered with the Company.
7. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the convener shall send the meeting invitation and accompanying documents to the Supervisors as they do to the members of the Board of Directors.

The Supervisor has the right to attend Board of Directors meetings; has the right to discuss but not to vote.
8. The Board of Directors meeting shall be held when at least 3/4 of the total number of members are present. In the event that the meeting convened as prescribed in this clause does not have enough members present as prescribed, a second meeting shall be convened within 07 days from the date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be held if more than half of the Members of the Board of Directors are present.
9. A Member of the Board of Directors is considered to be present and voting at the meeting in the following cases:
 - a) Attending and voting in person at the meeting;
 - b) Authorizing another person to attend the meeting and vote as prescribed in Clause 11 of this Article;
 - c) Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting or other electronic means;
 - d) Sending ballots to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
 - e) Sending ballots by other means as prescribed in this Charter.
10. In the case of sending ballots to the meeting by mail, the ballots must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and must be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than 01 hour before the opening. Ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.

- b) A Member of the Board of Directors may not vote on a transaction that benefits that member or a related person of that member as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the company's Charter.
 - c) As prescribed in point d, clause 11, Article 30, when an issue arises at the meeting relating to the interests or voting rights of a Member of the Board of Directors and that member does not voluntarily waive the right to vote, the chairperson's ruling shall be final, unless the nature or extent of the Member's interest is not fully disclosed;
 - d) A Member of the Board of Directors who benefits from a contract prescribed in point a and point b, clause 6, Article 43 of this Charter is deemed to have a significant interest in that contract;
 - e) The Supervisor has the right to attend the Board of Directors meetings, has the right to discuss, but not to vote.
12. A Member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction that has been signed or is expected to be signed with the Company and knows that they are a beneficiary thereof shall disclose this interest at the first meeting of the Board discussing the signing of this contract or transaction. If the Member of the Board of Directors is not aware of their own or a related person's interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, this Member of the Board of Directors must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after the member becomes aware that they have or will have an interest in the aforementioned transaction or contract.
13. Members must attend all Board of Directors meetings. Members may authorize another person to attend the meeting and vote if approved by a majority of the Board of Directors.
14. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be passed if approved by a majority of the members present at the meeting (over 50%); in the event of a tie, the final decision rests with the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
15. The Board of Directors has the authority to solicit written opinions from Board members to adopt Board Resolutions when addressing matters within the Board's purview as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 27 of these Articles of Association.
Resolutions obtained through written opinions are adopted based on the approval of a majority of voting Board members. This resolution holds the same validity and effect as a resolution adopted in a meeting.
16. Board of Directors meetings can be held via online conference between Board members when all or some members are in different locations, provided that each participating member can:
- a) Hear every other participating Board member speak during the meeting;
 - b) Speak to all other participating members simultaneously. Discussions among members may occur directly via telephone or other communication means, or a combination thereof. Board members participating in such meetings are considered "present" at the meeting. The location of a meeting held under this provision is the location with the highest concentration of Board members or the location of the meeting's Chairperson.

Decisions adopted during a properly organized and conducted telephone meeting are effective immediately upon the meeting's conclusion but must be confirmed by the signatures of all participating Board members in the meeting minutes.

17. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors is responsible for sending the minutes of the Board meeting to the members, and these minutes serve as authentic proof of the proceedings unless objections to their content are raised within ten (10) days of their dispatch. The minutes of the Board of Directors meeting shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in English. The minutes must bear the signatures of the Chairperson and the minute-taker.

2. Supervisors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses for meals, accommodation, travel, and the use of independent consulting services. The total amount of this remuneration and expenses does not exceed the total annual operating budget of the Board of Supervisors approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. Salaries and operating expenses of the Board of Supervisors are included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax, other relevant legal provisions, and must be itemized separately in the Company's annual financial statements.

X. RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, GENERAL DIRECTOR, AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, General Director, and other executives are responsible for performing their duties, including those as members of subcommittees of the Board of Directors, honestly and prudently in the best interests of the Company.

Article 43. Responsibility for honesty and avoidance of conflicts of interest

1. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, General Director, and other managers must disclose relevant interests as prescribed by the Enterprise Law and relevant legal documents.
2. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, General Director, other managers, and their related persons may only use information obtained by virtue of their positions to serve the interests of the Company.
3. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, General Director, and other managers are obligated to notify in writing the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors of transactions between the Company, subsidiaries, and other companies in which the Company holds more than 50% of the charter capital with such persons or with their related persons as prescribed by law. For the above transactions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors, the Company must disclose information about these resolutions in accordance with the provisions of Law on Securities on information disclosure.
4. A Member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on any transaction that benefits said Member or their affiliated persons as stipulated by the Enterprise Law and these Articles of Association.
5. Members of the Board of Directors, Controllers, General Directors, other managers, and their affiliated persons shall not utilize or disclose internal information to others for the purpose of conducting related transactions.
6. Transactions between the Company and one or more Members of the Board of Directors, Controllers, General Directors, other executive officers, and individuals or organizations affiliated with these individuals are not invalid in the following circumstances:
 - a) For transactions with a value less than 35% of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statement, the material terms of the contract or transaction, as well as the relationships and interests of the Member of the Board of Directors, Controller, General Director, or other executive officer, have been reported to the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Directors with a majority vote of the Members of the Board of Directors without any related interests.
 - b) For transactions with a value of 35% or more, or transactions resulting in a cumulative transaction value within 12 months from the date of the first transaction reaching 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statement, the material terms of this transaction, as well as the relationships and interests of the Member of the Board of Directors, Controller, General Director, or other executive officer, have been disclosed to the shareholders and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders with the votes of shareholders without related interests.
 - c) Loan agreements, asset sales, and other transactions with a value greater than 10% of the total asset value recorded on the most recent financial statements between the company and a shareholder owning 51% or more of the total voting shares, or an affiliated person of that shareholder, have been disclosed to the shareholders and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders through the votes of the shareholders without related interests.

Article 44. Liability for Damages and Indemnification

1. Any Member of the Board of Directors, Controller, General Director, or other executive officer who breaches their obligations, acts without honesty and due care, or fails to fulfill their duties shall be liable for any damages caused by their breach of conduct.
2. The Company shall indemnify individuals who are, were, or may become a party to claims, lawsuits, or prosecutions (including civil, administrative, and non-litigation matters not initiated by the Company) if such individual was or is a Member of the Board of Directors, Controller, General Director, other executive officer, employee, or duly authorized representative of the Company who has or is performing duties as authorized by the Company, acting honestly and prudently in the best interests of the Company, in compliance with the law, and without substantiated evidence confirming that said individual has breached their responsibilities.
3. Indemnification costs include judgment expenses, fines, and amounts actually incurred (including legal fees) or deemed reasonable in resolving these matters within the permissible legal framework. The Company may purchase insurance for these individuals to mitigate the aforementioned indemnification liabilities.

XI. RIGHT TO INSPECT COMPANY BOOKS AND RECORDS

Article 45. Right to Inspect Books and Records

1. Common shareholders have the right to inspect books and records, specifically as follows:
 - a) Common shareholders have the right to review, inspect, and extract information regarding names and contact addresses from the list of shareholders with voting rights; to request corrections to their inaccurate information; and to review, inspect, extract, or copy the Company's Articles of Association, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - b) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding 05% or more of the total common shares has the right to examine, inspect, and extract minutes and resolutions, decisions of the Board of Directors, semi-annual and annual financial statements, reports of the Supervisory Board, contracts, transactions subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, and other documents, except for those related to trade secrets and business secrets of the Company.
2. In cases where an duly authorized representative of a shareholder or a group of shareholders requests to inspect books and records, such representative must present a power of attorney from the shareholder or group of shareholders they represent, or a notarized copy thereof.

XIII. PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 47. Profit Distribution

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide the dividend payout ratio and the form of annual dividend payment from the Company's retained earnings.
2. The Company shall not pay interest on dividend payments or payments related to a class of shares.
3. The Board of Directors may propose to the General Meeting of Shareholders the payment of all or part of the dividends in shares, and the Board of Directors is the body that implements this decision.
4. In the event that dividends or other amounts related to a class of shares are paid in cash, the Company must pay in Vietnamese Dong. Payment can be made directly or through banks based on the bank account details provided by the shareholder. In the event that the Company has transferred the funds in accordance with the bank details provided by the shareholder, but the shareholder does not receive the money, the Company is not responsible for the amount the Company has transferred to that shareholder. Dividend payments for listed/registered shares on the Stock Exchange can be made through a securities company or the Vietnam Securities Depository.
5. Pursuant to the Enterprise Law and the Law on Securities, the Board of Directors shall pass a resolution and decision to determine a specific record date. Based on that date, those registered as shareholders or holders of other securities are entitled to receive cash or stock dividends, receive notices, or other documents.
6. Other issues related to profit distribution shall be implemented in accordance with the provisions of law.

XIV. BANK ACCOUNTS, FISCAL YEAR, AND ACCOUNTING REGIME

Article 48. Bank Accounts

1. The Company shall open accounts at Vietnamese banks or at branches of foreign banks permitted to operate in Vietnam.
2. With the prior approval of the competent authority, in necessary cases, the Company may open bank accounts abroad in accordance with the provisions of law.

3. The Company shall conduct all payments and accounting transactions through Vietnamese Dong or foreign currency accounts at the banks where the Company holds accounts.

Article 49. Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year shall commence on January 1st and conclude on December 31st annually. The initial fiscal year shall begin on the date of issuance of the Business Registration Certificate and terminate on December 31st immediately following the issuance date of said certificate.

Article 50. Accounting Regime

1. The Company's accounting regime shall be the enterprise accounting regime or a specific accounting regime promulgated and approved by a competent authority.
2. The Company shall maintain accounting books in Vietnamese and retain accounting records in accordance with the provisions of accounting law and relevant legislation. These records must be accurate, up-to-date, systematic, and sufficient to substantiate and explain the Company's transactions.
3. The Company's accounting currency shall be the Vietnamese Dong. In the event that the Company's economic transactions primarily occur in a foreign currency, the Company may select that foreign currency as its accounting currency, bearing responsibility for this selection before the law and notifying the direct tax administration authority.

XV. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, ANNUAL REPORTS, AND INFORMATION DISCLOSURE RESPONSIBILITIES

Article 51. Annual, Semi-annual, and Quarterly Financial Statements

1. The Company must prepare annual financial statements, and said statements shall be audited in accordance with the provisions of law. The Company shall disclose the audited annual financial statements in compliance with the regulations concerning information disclosure on the securities market and submit them to the competent state authorities.
2. The annual financial statements shall include all reports, appendices, and explanatory notes as prescribed by the law on enterprise accounting. The annual financial statements must accurately and objectively reflect the Company's operational status.
3. The Company must prepare and disclose reviewed semi-annual financial statements and quarterly financial statements in compliance with regulations on information disclosure in the securities market and submit them to the competent state authorities.

The Company must prepare and publish an Annual Report according to the provisions of law on securities and the securities market.

XVI. COMPANY AUDIT

Article 53. Audit

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint an independent audit firm or approve a list of independent audit firms and authorize the Board of Directors to select one of these entities to conduct the audit of the Company's financial statements for the subsequent fiscal year based on terms and conditions agreed upon with the Board of Directors.
2. The audit report is attached to the Company's annual financial statements.
3. The independent auditor conducting the audit of the Company's financial statements may attend General Meeting of Shareholders meetings and is entitled to receive notices and other information related to General Meeting of Shareholders meetings and to express opinions at the meeting on matters related to the audit of the Company's financial statements.

XVII. COMPANY SEAL

Article 54. Company Seal

1. The seal includes a physical seal made at a seal engraving establishment or a digital signature as prescribed by law on electronic transactions.
2. The Board of Directors decides the types, quantity, form, and content of the seals of the Company, its branches, and representative offices (if any).
3. The Board of Directors and the General Director shall use and manage the seal in accordance with the prevailing laws.

XVIII. COMPANY DISSOLUTION

Article 55. Company Dissolution

1. The Company shall be dissolved in the following circumstances:
 - a) Expiration of the operational term stipulated in the Company Charter without a decision for extension;
 - b) Pursuant to a resolution or decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c) The Company no longer maintains the minimum number of shareholders as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises for a continuous period of six months without undertaking procedures for conversion of enterprise type;
 - d) Revocation of the Certificate of Business Registration, except as otherwise stipulated by the Law on Tax Administration.
2. The dissolution of the Company prior to the expiration date (including any extended term) shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders and implemented by the Board of Directors. This dissolution decision must be notified to or approved by the competent authority (if required) as regulated.

Article 56. Extension of Operations

1. The Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders at least seven months prior to the expiration of the operational term to allow shareholders to vote on the extension of the Company's operations as proposed by the Board of Directors.
2. The operational term shall be extended upon the affirmative vote of shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders present and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 57. Liquidation

1. At least six months prior to the expiration of the Company's operational term or after the decision to dissolve the Company, the Board of Directors must establish a Liquidation Committee comprising three members, two of whom are appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and one member appointed by the Board of Directors from an independent auditing company. The Liquidation Committee shall prepare its operating regulations. Members of the Liquidation Committee may be selected from among the Company's employees or independent experts. All costs associated with the liquidation shall be prioritized by the Company for payment before other debts of the Company.
2. The Liquidation Committee is responsible for reporting to the Business Registration Authority the date of its establishment and the commencement date of its operations. From that point forward, the Liquidation Committee represents the Company in all matters pertaining to the Company's liquidation before the Court and administrative agencies.

3. Proceeds from the liquidation shall be disbursed in the following order:
 - a) Liquidation expenses;
 - b) Salary arrears, severance allowances, social insurance, and other benefits of employees according to the collective labor agreement and signed labor contracts;
 - c) Tax liabilities;
 - d) Other debts of the Company;
 - e) The remainder after payment of all debts from items (a) through (d) above shall be distributed to the shareholders. Preference shares shall be paid preferentially.

CHAPTER 2 – GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

I. REGULATIONS FOR THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS PASSING RESOLUTIONS BY BALLOT AT THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1. Roles, Rights, and Obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The roles, rights, and obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders are stipulated under Article 138 of the Law on Enterprises No. 59/2020/QH14, the Law on Securities No. 54/2019/QH14, and Articles 14 and 15 of the Company Charter.

Section 2. Regulations on the order and procedures for convening and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

Article 3. Authority to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Authority to convene the annual General Meeting of Shareholders: The General Meeting of Shareholders shall convene annually within four (04) months from the fiscal year's end. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company Charter, the Board of Directors may decide to extend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders if necessary, but not exceeding six (06) months from the fiscal year's end.
2. Authority to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - a. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) days from the date the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board is as stipulated in point b, clause 3, Article 14 of the Company Charter or from the date of receiving the request stipulated in points c and d, clause 3, Article 14 of the Company Charter;
The Board of Directors must notify the General Meeting of Shareholders at the nearest meeting of any independent Board member no longer meeting the required standards and conditions, or convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional or replacement independent Board members within 06 months from the date of receiving notification from the relevant independent Board member;
 - b. In the event the Board of Directors fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders within the timeframe stipulated in point a, clause 4, Article 14 of the Company Charter, within the following thirty (30) days, the Supervisory Board must replace the Board of Directors in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - c. In the event the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in point b, clause 4, Article 14 of the Company Charter, shareholders or a group of shareholders owning at least 05% of the total common shares have the right to represent the Company in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in the Law on Enterprises.

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the Business Registration Authority to supervise the procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and the decision-making of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All expenses for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These expenses do not include those incurred by shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel costs.

- d. The Board of Directors reserves the right to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders if deemed necessary for the benefit of the Company; or at the request of the Supervisory Board; or in other cases as prescribed by law and the Company Charter.
- e. Procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders are as stipulated in clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 4. Personnel of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Chairperson and Presidium:

- a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over or authorize another Board member to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In the absence or temporary incapacitation of the Chairman, the remaining Board members shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting by majority vote. In the event a chairperson cannot be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall manage the process for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson from among the attendees, with the individual receiving the highest number of votes presiding over the meeting;
- b. Except as provided in point (a) of this clause, the person signing the convening notice shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders until the General Meeting of Shareholders elects a chairperson, and the person with the highest number of votes shall serve as the chairperson of the meeting.
- c. The chairperson has the authority to implement necessary measures to conduct the meeting in a reasonable and orderly manner, according to the approved agenda and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees.
- d. The chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following powers:
 - Require all attendees to undergo inspection or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - Request competent authorities to maintain order during the meeting; expel from the General Meeting of Shareholders any individuals who fail to comply with the chairperson's authority, intentionally disrupt order, obstruct the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.
- e. The chairperson has the authority to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders, with a maximum registered attendance, for no more than 03 business days from the intended opening date, and may only postpone the meeting or change the meeting location in the following circumstances:
 - The meeting location lacks sufficient and convenient seating for all attendees;

- Communication facilities at the meeting venue are inadequate to ensure shareholders' participation, discussion, and voting;
 - An attendee obstructs or disrupts order, posing a risk to the fair and lawful conduct of the meeting.
 - f. Other rights and obligations of the Chairperson as prescribed by applicable law.
 - g. The Presidium comprises the President and members nominated by the President and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - h. Duties of the Presidium:

 - Other duties as requested by the Chairperson.
3. Ballot Counting Committee:
- a. The General Meeting of Shareholders elects one or more persons to the Ballot Counting Committee as proposed by the chairperson of the meeting;
 - b. Duties of the Ballot Counting Committee:
 - Disseminate the principles, rules, and instructions on voting procedures.
 - Verify and record votes, prepare ballot counting minutes, and announce the results; submit the minutes to the Chairperson for approval of the voting results.
 - Promptly communicate the voting results to the secretary.
 - Review and report to the General Meeting of Shareholders any instances of voting irregularities or complaints regarding the voting results.
4. Shareholder/Representative Eligibility Verification Committee:
- a. The Chairperson shall appoint one or more individuals serving on the Shareholder/Representative Eligibility Verification Committee for the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders' Representative Eligibility Verification Committee comprises one Chairperson and members, established by the Board of Directors and introduced to the general meeting by the Presidium.

b. Duties of the Shareholder/Representative Verification Committee:

- Verify the eligibility and attendance status of shareholders and shareholder representatives.
- The Chairperson of the Representative Eligibility Verification Committee reports the shareholder attendance to the General Meeting of Shareholders. If the meeting has a quorum of shareholders and authorized representatives representing over 50% of the total voting shares, the General Meeting of Shareholders may proceed.
- Participate in the vote counting for other matters before the establishment of the Ballot Counting Committee.

Article 5. Prepare the list of eligible shareholders and announce the finalization of the shareholder list for the General Meeting of Shareholders.

1. The company must disclose information regarding the compilation of the list of shareholders eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 days before the final registration date.
2. The company shall carry out the procedures for compiling the list of shareholders and related procedures as stipulated in the regulations on exercising the rights of the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.

Article 6. Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must send a meeting invitation to all shareholders on the list of eligible shareholders no later than 21 days before the opening date unless the company's charter stipulates a longer period. The invitation must include the name, address of the headquarters, enterprise registration code; name and contact address of the shareholder; time and location of the meeting; and other requirements for attendees.
2. The invitation shall be sent by a method that ensures delivery to the shareholder's contact address and posted on the company's website. If deemed necessary, the company may publish the invitation in a central or local daily newspaper as prescribed by the company's charter.
3. The meeting invitation must be accompanied by the following documents:
 - a. The meeting agenda, documents to be used during the meeting, and draft resolutions for each item on the agenda.
 - b. Voting ballots/election ballots.
4. If the company has a website, sending meeting materials along with the meeting invitation as stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article can be replaced by posting them on the company's website. In this case, the meeting invitation must clearly state the location and method for downloading the documents.

Article 7. Agenda and content of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened in the circumstances stipulated in Article 3 of these regulations.
2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must carry out the following tasks:

- a. Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote/elect at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be compiled no more than 10 days before the date of sending the invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The sequence and procedures shall be carried out in accordance with Article 6 of these regulations.
 - b. Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting.

3. The notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders is sent to all shareholders by means of ensuring it reaches the shareholder's contact address, and is simultaneously published on the Company's website, the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must send the notice of the meeting to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend the meeting no later than 21 days before the opening day of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is validly sent or dispatched). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and documents related to matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In the event that documents are not enclosed with the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the notice of the meeting must clearly state the link to all meeting documents so that shareholders can access them, including:
- a. Meeting agenda, documents used in the meeting;
 - b. List and details of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board;
 - c. Ballot/Voting slip;
 - d. Draft resolution for each matter on the agenda.
4. A shareholder or group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 12 of the Company's Charter has the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and must be sent to the Company no later than 03 working days before the opening day of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of each type of share held by the shareholder, contact address, nationality, ID card number, Citizen Identity Card number, Passport number or other legal personal identification for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or establishment decision number, head office address for institutional shareholders; the number and type of shares held by that shareholder, and the matter proposed to be included in the meeting agenda.
5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to refuse a proposal as stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article if it falls into one of the following cases:

- a. The proposal is not submitted in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of the common shares as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 12 of the Company's Charter;
 - c. The proposed matter is not within the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d. Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.
6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal as stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the draft agenda and content of the meeting, except for the cases specified in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal is officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 8. Methods of registration and proxy attendance at the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 1. Methods of registration to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders before the opening day of the General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - a. The methods of registration to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders are clearly stipulated in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of law and the Company's Charter, including but not limited to methods such as contacting the Company or sending the Registration Form to attend the General Meeting (attached to the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders sent to shareholders) to the Company.
 - b. Shareholders shall register their attendance at the General Meeting of Shareholders in the manner specified in the notice, including:
 - Attending and voting/electing in person at the meeting;
 - Authorizing another representative to attend and vote/elect at the meeting and comply with the provisions of Clause 2 of this Article; (In case there is more than one appointed representative, the number of shares and the number of votes/ballots authorized for each representative must be specified).
 - Attending and voting/electing via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
 - Sending ballots/voting slips to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
 - Other forms of registration to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Law.
 - The Company must make every effort to apply modern information technology to enable shareholders to attend and express their opinions at the General Meeting of Shareholders in the best possible way, including guiding shareholders to vote through online General Meeting of Shareholders, electronic voting or other electronic forms as prescribed in Article 144 of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter.
- 2. Regulations on authorizing attendance at the general meeting
 - a. Shareholders, authorized representatives of shareholders shall carry out authorization in accordance with the provisions of Article 16 of the Company's Charter;
 - b. The authorization for individuals or organizations to represent attendance at the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Point a, Clause 2 of this Article must be made in writing. The authorization document shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content of the authorization, the scope of the authorization, the term of the authorization, and the signatures of the authorizing party and the authorized party.

The authorized attendee of the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the authorization document upon registration for the meeting. In case of re-authorization, the meeting attendee must present the original authorization document of the shareholder, the authorized representative of the shareholder being an organization (if not previously registered with the Company).

- c. The ballot/voting slip of the authorized meeting attendee within the authorized scope remains valid in the following cases, except for the following circumstances:
- The authorizer has died, has limited civil act capacity, or has lost civil act capacity;
 - The authorizer has cancelled the authorization appointment;
 - The authorizer has revoked the authority of the person carrying out the authorization.
 - This provision does not apply in the event that the Company receives notification of one of the above events before the opening time of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

3. Procedures for registering to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders and Verification of delegate status on the day of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Before the opening of the meeting, the Company must carry out the shareholder registration procedure and must perform the registration until all shareholders eligible to attend the meeting who are present have registered according to the following order:

- a. When conducting shareholder registration, the Company shall issue each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card/ballot/voting slip, stating the registration number, the full name of the shareholder, the full name of the authorized representative, and the number of ballots/voting slips of that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by voting in favor, against, and abstaining. The vote counting results shall be announced by the Chairman/Ballot Counting Board immediately before the closing of the meeting, unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter. The General Meeting shall elect those responsible for counting the votes or supervising the vote counting as proposed by the Chairman. The number of members of the ballot counting board shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairman of the meeting.
- b. Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or proxies arriving after the commencement of the meeting are entitled to register immediately and subsequently participate and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders immediately following registration. The chairperson is not obligated to adjourn the meeting to allow late shareholders to register, and the validity of matters previously voted upon remains unaffected.

Article 9. Conditions for Conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders may proceed when shareholders present represent more than 50% of the total voting shares.
2. If the first meeting does not meet the quorum stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, a second meeting notice shall be sent within 30 days from the date of the first scheduled meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders may proceed when shareholders present represent at least 33% of the total voting shares.
3. If the second meeting does not meet the quorum as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, a third meeting notice must be sent within 20 days from the date of the second scheduled meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders may proceed regardless of the total voting shares of the shareholders present.

Article 10. Resolution Adoption Procedures of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The General Meeting of Shareholders adopts resolutions within its authority through voting at the meeting, written opinions, and other methods as prescribed by applicable law.

22. Other matters as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

Article 12. Voting to approve matters at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. General Principles
 - a. All matters in the agenda and content of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be discussed and voted upon publicly.
 - b. Voting Cards, Ballot Papers, and Election Ballots are printed, sealed, and sent directly to delegates at the meeting (along with the General Meeting of Shareholders document set). Each delegate is issued a Voting Card, a Ballot Paper, and an Election Ballot. The Voting Card, Ballot Paper, and Election Ballot clearly state the delegate's code, full name, number of shares owned, and authorized voting rights.
2. Regulations on the Validity of Ballot Papers and Election Ballots
 - a. Ballot Paper
 - A valid Ballot Paper is one that conforms to the pre-printed template issued by the Organizing Committee, is free from erasures, alterations, tears, or damage, contains no additional content beyond the prescribed fields, and bears the signature and full handwritten name of the attending delegate, submitted to the Vote Counting Board before the ballot box is unsealed.
On the Ballot Paper, the vote is valid when the delegate marks one (01) of the three (03) voting boxes.
 - Invalid Ballot Paper: Content does not comply with the regulations for a valid Ballot Paper
 - b. Election Ballot
 - Valid Election Ballot: Conforms to the pre-printed template issued by the Organizing Committee, is free from erasures or alterations, contains no content beyond the prescribed fields, bears the signature and full name of the attending delegate, and is submitted to the Vote Counting Board before the ballot box is unsealed.
 - Invalid Election Ballot:
 - Content does not comply with the regulations for a valid Election Ballot

- The number of candidates voted for by the delegate exceeds the number of candidates to be elected;
- The total number of votes for candidates by a shareholder or representative exceeds the total number of permitted votes;
- Other regulations as stipulated in the Regulations on Elections of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Company's Charter.

Article 13. Voting Methods

1. General Principles

- The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each matter in the agenda. Voting is conducted by raising cards, direct voting, electronic voting, or other electronic means.
- Delegates vote to Approve, Disapprove, or Abstain on a matter presented for voting at the General Meeting by raising their Voting Card or filling in the options on the Ballot Paper.

2. Voting Methods

- a. Voting by Ballot Card: When voting by raising the Ballot Card, the front of the Ballot Card must be raised towards the Presidium. In the event that a representative does not raise their Ballot Card in all three votes of Approval, Disapproval, or Abstention for a matter, they shall be considered as not having voted. In the event that a representative raises their Ballot Card more than once when voting Approval, Disapproval, or Abstention for a matter, their vote shall be considered invalid. According to the voting method by raising the Ballot Card, the Delegate Qualification Inspection Committee/Ballot Counting Committee marks the delegate code and the corresponding ballot number of each shareholder for Approval, Disapproval, Abstention, and Invalid votes.
- b. Voting by Ballot: When voting by filling out a Ballot, for each item, the representative selects one of the three options "Approve," "Disapprove," or "Abstain" pre-printed on the Ballot by marking "X" or "✓" in the box of their choice. After completing all the voting items of the General Meeting, the representative submits the Ballot to the sealed ballot box at the General Meeting as instructed by the Ballot Counting Committee. The Ballot must be signed and include the full name of the representative. □
- c. Electronic Voting: Conducted similarly to Article 31 of these regulations.

Article 14. Election Voting Procedures

1. General Principles

- Conducted in strict accordance with the provisions of the law and the Company Charter;
- Members of the ballot counting committee must not be included in the nomination list, nor self-nominate for the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board.

2. Election Voting Methods

a. Cumulative Voting Method

- Accordingly, each representative has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned, represented, multiplied by the number of members to be elected;

- Participating representatives have the right to cast all of their votes for one or several candidates;
- In the event of additional candidates arising on the day of the general meeting, representatives can contact the Ballot Counting Committee to request a new ballot and must return the old ballot (before placing it in the ballot box);
- In case of an erroneous selection, the representative shall contact the Ballot Counting Committee to be issued a new ballot and must return the old ballot;
- How to Cast a Ballot: Each representative is issued ballots. The method of casting a ballot is specifically guided as follows:
 - + Representatives vote for a maximum number of candidates equal to the number of candidates to be elected;
 - + If casting all votes for one or more candidates, the representative marks the "Cumulative Vote" box for the corresponding candidates;
 - + If casting an uneven number of votes for multiple candidates, the representative clearly indicates the number of votes in the "Number of Votes" box for the corresponding candidates.

Note: In the event that a representative both marks the "Cumulative Vote" box and writes a number in the "Number of Votes" box, the result will be based on the number of votes in the "Number of Votes" box.

- Principles of Election:
 - + The elected individuals are determined based on the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the required number of members is elected.
 - + In the event that two (02) or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final member position, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes.
 - + If the first round of elections does not result in the required number of elected members, elections will be held until the required number of members is elected.
- b. Voting by ballot: Conducted in accordance with the provisions of Point b, Clause 2, Article 13 of these Regulations.
- c. Electronic voting: Conducted similarly to Article 31 of these Regulations.

Article 15. Vote Counting Procedures

The vote counting procedure is carried out by aggregating the ballots/voting cards in favor, against, and abstaining.

Article 16. Conditions for Resolution Approval

1. A Resolution on the following content is passed if it receives affirmative votes from shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders present at the meeting and voting, except as prescribed in Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Enterprise Law:
 - b) Class of shares and total number of shares of each class;
 - c) Changes in industries, trades, and business lines;

- d) Changes to the organizational structure of the Company's management;
 - e) Investment projects or asset sales with a value from 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements;
 - f) Company reorganization or dissolution;
 - g) Extension of the company's operation;
 - h) Other matters stipulated in these Articles of Association.
2. Resolutions are passed when approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total votes of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except as provided for in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Enterprise Law.
3. The voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be carried out by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares held multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. The successful candidates for members of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board members are determined by the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company's Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes, or the selection will be made based on the criteria specified in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.
4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed with 100% of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the sequence and procedures for convening the meeting and passing the resolution violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter.

Article 17. Announcement of Vote Counting Results

The Vote Counting Board will check, aggregate, and report to the Chairperson/Vote Counting Board the results of the count for each matter. The vote counting results will be announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting.

Article 18. Procedures for Objecting to Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders who have voted against the Resolution on the reorganization of the company or changes to the rights and obligations of shareholders as stipulated in the Company's Charter have the right to request the company to repurchase their shares. The request must be in writing, clearly stating the shareholder's name, address, number of shares of each type, intended selling price, and reason for requesting the company to repurchase. The request must be sent to the company within 10 days from the date the General Meeting of Shareholders passes the Resolution on the matters specified in this clause.
2. The Company must repurchase shares at the request of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article at market price or at a price calculated according to the principles specified in the Company's Charter within 90 days from the date of receipt of the request. In the event that the parties cannot agree on a price, they may request a valuation from a valuation organization. The Company shall introduce at least 03 valuation organizations for the shareholder to choose from, and that selection shall be final.

3.  - a. The procedures for obtaining written shareholder opinions seriously violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter, except for the case specified in Clause 3, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.
 - b. The Content of the Resolution violates the law or the Company's Charter.

III. REGULATIONS FOR THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS ADOPTING RESOLUTIONS THROUGH ONLINE MEETINGS

Article 23. Notice of Convening the Online General Meeting of Shareholders

Implement according to the provisions of Article 6 of these Regulations.

Note: Voting/ballot papers do not need to be sent with the meeting invitation.

Article 24. How to Register to Attend the Online General Meeting of Shareholders

The method for registering to participate in the online General Meeting of Shareholders before the opening day of the General Meeting of Shareholders is specified in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders, including:

1. Conditions for participation:
 - Be named in the list of shareholders eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders prepared according to the Company's notice of exercise of rights.
 - Authorized representatives are eligible to participate as prescribed by law and the company's charter.
2. Technical requirements: Delegates need an internet-connected electronic device (e.g., computer, tablet, mobile phone, other electronic device with internet connection, etc.).
3. The method for recording Delegates attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders: A Delegate is recognized by the electronic voting system as attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders when that Delegate accesses the system using the access information provided according to Article 25 of these Regulations and has cast an electronic vote on any matter within the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 25. Providing login information and conducting electronic voting

1. Information regarding the access link to the electronic voting system, username, password, and other identifying factors (if any) for attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders will be provided in the meeting invitation (or in the form of login information notification as prescribed by the Board of Directors). Delegates are responsible for safeguarding their usernames, passwords, and other identifying factors provided to ensure that only the Delegate has the right to vote on the electronic voting system and bears full responsibility for this registered information.
2. When a Delegate requests to be re-provided with login information, the Organizing Committee may notify them through the following means: directly or via email/telephone. Providing login information via email or telephone is only performed based on shareholder information from the list of shareholders entitled to vote, compiled by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation according to the Company's exercise of rights notification.
3. Delegates use their username, password, or other identifying factors (if any) to access the electronic voting system and cast their electronic votes according to the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 26. Authorizing a representative to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders authorize representation in accordance with the provisions of Clause 2, Article 8 of these Regulations.
2. Some regulations to note when performing online authorization:
Shareholders need to comply with providing complete information to perform online authorization, especially providing information for the authorized representative: phone number, contact address, and email address. This information serves as the basis for issuing usernames, passwords, and other identifying factors (if any) to the authorized representative.
Validity of online authorization: The authorization is only legally valid when satisfying the following conditions:
 - When the shareholder fills in all information on the online authorization form issued by the Company or as prescribed by civil law and completes the online authorization process.
 - The printed authorization form based on the online authorization template must include the full signature, full name, and seal (if applicable for organizations) of both the authorizing party and the authorized representative.
 - The Company receives the original authorization document before the official commencement of the meeting.

Cancellation of authorization for shareholders who have authorized online: Shareholders send an official written request to cancel the online authorization to the Company before the official commencement of the meeting. Note that the effective time of the cancellation is calculated based on the time the Company receives the official written request to cancel the online authorization.

Cancellation of authorization will be invalid if the authorized representative has already cast a vote/ballot on any matter within the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 27. Conditions for proceeding

Implementation follows the provisions of Article 9 of these Regulations.

Article 28. Discussion at the General Meeting of Shareholders online

1. Principles:

- Discussion shall only be conducted within the allotted time and within the scope of matters presented in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- Only Delegates are allowed to participate in the discussion;
- Delegates shall register their discussion topics in the manner specified in the working regulations of the meeting;
- The Secretariat will arrange the discussion topics of the Delegates in the order of registration and forward them to the Chairperson.

2. Addressing Delegates' comments:

- Based on the content of the Delegates' discussion, the Chairperson or a member designated by the Chairperson will address the Delegates' comments;
- In case due to time constraints, questions not directly answered at the General Meeting of Shareholders will be answered later by the Company.

Article 29. Form of Resolution adoption of the online General Meeting of Shareholders

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall adopt Resolutions within its competence by electronic voting.

Article 30. Online voting method

1. Voting method:

- Delegates select one of three voting options: Agree, Disagree, or Abstain for each matter put to a vote at the General Meeting, as configured in the electronic voting system.
- Afterwards, the Delegate shall confirm the vote for the electronic voting system to record the result.

2. Election voting method:

- Cumulative voting method: Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter, the voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted by cumulative voting (equal cumulative voting or numbered voting). Accordingly, the Delegate shall cast their vote by ticking the "Cumulative Voting" box or clearly stating the number of votes in the "Number of Votes" box of the corresponding candidates on the Ballot pre-configured in the electronic voting system. Afterwards, the Delegate shall confirm the vote for the electronic voting system to record the result.
- Voting method (if any): Implemented according to the voting regulations specified in Clause a of this Article.

3. Other regulations on electronic voting:

- In case the Delegate does not complete all voting matters and elections according to the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, matters not yet voted on or elected shall be considered as the Delegate not having voted on or elected that matter.

- In the event of matters arising outside the agenda sent to the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Delegate may cast additional votes. If the Delegate does not vote on matters that arise, it shall be deemed that the Delegate has not voted on the matter.
- Delegates may change their voting results (but cannot cancel the voting results); including the results of additional votes on issues arising outside the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The online system only records vote counts for the final voting results at the end of the electronic voting period for each vote counting round as specified in the working regulations of the meeting.
- In the event that the Delegate performs numbered voting: An invalid ballot is a ballot where the total number of votes for candidates is different from (greater than or less than) the total number of votes of the Delegate representative calculated at the time of vote counting.
- The time for electronic voting is specifically stipulated in the working regulations of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Representatives can access the electronic voting system and cast their votes 24 hours a day and 7 days a week, except in cases of system maintenance or other reasons beyond the Company's control. After the voting period ends, the system will not record any further electronic votes from Representatives.

Article 31. Online Vote Counting Procedures

When a Representative casts a vote, the number of ballots is recorded on the system according to the principle of affirmative votes, dissenting votes, and abstentions.

Article 32. Announcement of Vote Counting Results

Based on the vote counting minutes recorded as stipulated in Article 31 of these Regulations, the Vote Counting Board will check, synthesize, and report to the CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS the vote counting results for each matter according to the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The vote counting results will be announced by the CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS/Vote Counting Board immediately before the adjournment of the meeting.

Article 33. Preparation of Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- Implemented in accordance with the provisions of Article 19 of these Regulations.
- The venue stated in the minutes of the online General Meeting of Shareholders is the location where the CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the General Meeting of Shareholders is present to preside over the meeting. This location must be within the territory of Vietnam.
- The method of approving the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders is specifically stipulated in the company's working regulations at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

 - e. Disclose information when conducting transactions involving the company's shares in accordance with legal regulations.
3. Independent Members of the Board of Directors must prepare an evaluation report on the Board's performance.

Section 2 – Regulations on Nomination, Candidacy, Election, Dismissal, and Removal of Members of the Board of Directors

Article 47. Number, term, and structure of Members of the Board of Directors

1. The number of Members of the Board of Directors is at least 05 and at most 11.
2. The term of a Member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed 05 years and may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may only be elected as an independent Member of the Board of Directors of one company and for no more than 02 consecutive terms. In the event that all Members of the Board of Directors complete their terms simultaneously, those members shall continue to serve as Members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace and take over their duties.

3. The composition of the Board of Directors' members is as follows:

a. The company's Board of Directors structure must ensure that at least 1/3 of the total Board of Directors' members are non-executive members. The Company limits the maximum number of Board of Directors' members concurrently holding executive positions within the Company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.

The total number of independent members of the Board of Directors must comply with the following regulations:

- i. There must be a minimum of 01 independent Member of the Board of Directors, in the event the company has 03 to 05 Board of Directors' members;
- ii. There must be a minimum of 02 independent members in the event the company has 06 to 08 Board of Directors' members;
- iii. There must be a minimum of 03 independent members in the event the company has 09 to 11 Board of Directors' members.

The rights, obligations, and methods of organization and coordination of independent members of the Board of Directors will be specifically stipulated in the Board of Directors' operating regulations.

b. A Member of the Board of Directors is no longer a member of the Board of Directors in the event of being dismissed, removed, or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Article 160 of the Enterprise Law.

c. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be disclosed in accordance with the laws on information disclosure in the securities market.

d. Members of the Board of Directors are not necessarily shareholders of the Company.

Article 48. Standards and Conditions for Board of Directors' members

1. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the standards and conditions prescribed in Clause 1 and Clause 2, Article 155 of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is not permitted to concurrently hold the position of General Director of a public company.
3. A Member of the Board of Directors of a public company may only concurrently serve as a member of the Board of Directors at a maximum of 05 other companies.

Article 49. Nomination and candidacy for Board of Directors' members

1. A shareholder or group of shareholders owning at least 5% of the total ordinary shares has the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors as prescribed by the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter. Shareholders holding ordinary shares have the right to combine their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from 5% to less than 10% of the total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 10% to less than 30% may nominate a maximum of two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% may nominate a maximum of three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% may nominate a maximum of four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% may nominate a maximum of five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% may nominate a maximum of six (06) candidates; from 70% to 80% may nominate a maximum of seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to 90% may nominate a maximum of eight (08) candidates.

2. In the event that the number of Board of Directors candidates through nomination and candidacy is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall introduce additional candidates or organize nominations in accordance with the regulations of the Board of Directors' Operational Regulations. The incumbent Board of Directors' introduction of additional candidates must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors as prescribed by law.

Article 50. Method of electing Board of Directors' members

The voting to elect members of the Board of Directors must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. Successful candidates for the Board of Directors are determined based on the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company's Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final member of the Board of Directors, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes, or a selection will be made according to the criteria specified in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.

Article 51. Cases of dismissal, removal, replacement, and supplementation of members of the Board of Directors

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a. Not having sufficient qualifications and conditions as prescribed in Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b. Having a letter of resignation and being approved;
 - c. Other cases specified in the company's charter.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a. Not participating in the activities of the Board of Directors for six consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
 - b. Other cases specified in the company's charter.
3. When deemed necessary, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide to replace a member of the Board of Directors; dismiss or remove a member of the Board of Directors in cases other than those specified in Clause 1 and Clause 2 of this Article.
4. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a. The number of members of the Board of Directors is reduced by more than one-third (1/3) compared to the number specified in the company's charter. In this case, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within 60 days from the date the number of members is reduced by more than one-third;

- b. The number of independent members of the Board of Directors is reduced, not ensuring the ratio prescribed in Point b, Clause 1, Article 137 of the Law on Enterprises;
- c. Except for the cases specified in Point a and Point b of this Clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace the members of the Board of Directors who have been dismissed or removed at the nearest meeting.

Article 52. Notification of election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Directors

After the decision to elect, dismiss, or remove a member of the Board of Directors, the Company is responsible for publicizing the information internally within the Company and to relevant agencies, on mass media, and on the Company's website according to the procedures and regulations of current law.

Article 53. Method of introducing candidates for members of the Board of Directors

In the case where candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the company must publish information related to the candidates at least 10 days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must have a written commitment to the honesty and accuracy of the personal information published and must commit to performing their duties honestly, prudently, and in the best interests of the company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information related to candidates for the Board of Directors to be published includes:

- a. Full name, Date of birth;
- b. Qualification;
- c. Work experience;
- d. Other management positions (including the title of the Board of Directors of other companies);
- e. Interests related to the company and related parties of the company;
- f. Other information (If any) as prescribed in the company's charter.

The company must publicize information about the companies in which the candidate is holding the position of a member of the Board of Directors, other management positions, and interests related to the company of the candidate for the Board of Directors (if any).

Article 54. Election, removal, and dismissal of the Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected, dismissed, and removed by the Board of Directors from among the members of the Board of Directors.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. Establish the program and operational plan of the Board of Directors;
 - b. Prepare the program, content, and documents for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair meetings of the Board of Directors;

- c. Organize the adoption of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - d. Supervise the implementation of the Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - e. Preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.
4. In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is dismissed or removed from office, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within [10 days] from the date of receipt of the resignation letter or dismissal or removal from office.
 5. In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must authorize in writing another Member of the Board of Directors to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the principles stipulated in the Company's Charter. In the event there is no authorized person or the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is undergoing administrative handling measures at a compulsory detoxification facility or compulsory educational institution, has absconded from their place of residence, has limited or lost civil act capacity, has difficulties in perception or controlling their behavior, is prohibited by the Court from holding a position, practicing a profession, or performing certain jobs, the remaining members shall elect one person among the members to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the remaining members until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Section 3 – Remuneration, Salary, Bonuses, and Other Benefits of the Members of the Board of Directors

Article 55. Remuneration, Bonuses, and Other Benefits of the Members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to the Members of the Board of Directors based on business results and performance.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to work remuneration and bonuses. Work remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days necessary to complete the tasks of a Member of the Board of Directors and the remuneration rate per day. The Board of Directors shall estimate the remuneration for each member based on the principle of unanimity (or equally divided in case of no agreement or failure to reach an agreement). The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
3. The remuneration of each Member of the Board of Directors is included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax, is presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions or Members of the Board of Directors working on subcommittees of the Board of Directors or performing other tasks outside the scope of the normal duties of a Member of the Board of Directors may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum payment, salary, commission, percentage of profit, or in other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement for all travel, meal, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses they have incurred in performing their responsibilities as Members of the Board of Directors, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or subcommittees of the Board of Directors.
6. A Member of the Board of Directors may be insured by the Company for liability after obtaining approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover liabilities of the Member of the Board of Directors related to violations of law and the Company's Charter.

Section 4 – Regulations on the Order and Procedures for Organizing Meetings of the Board of Directors

Article 56. Minimum number of meetings per month/quarter/year

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected in the first meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the end of the election of that Board of Directors. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In the event that there is more than one member with the highest and equal number of votes or percentage of votes, the members shall vote by majority principle to select 01 person among them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.
2. The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly and may hold extraordinary meetings.

Article 57. Cases Requiring the Convening of an Extraordinary Meeting of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a. At the request of the Board of Supervisors or an independent Member of the Board of Directors;
 - b. At the request of the General Director or at least 05 other managers;
 - c. At the request of at least 02 Members of the Board of Directors;
 - d. Other cases as stipulated in the Company's Charter.
2. The request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, issues to be discussed, and decisions within the authority of the Board of Directors.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of receiving the request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article. In the event that a meeting of the Board of Directors is not convened as requested, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for any damages incurred by the Company; the requesting party has the right to replace the Chairman of the Board of Directors in convening the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Article 58. Notice of the Meeting of the Board of Directors and the Right to Attend the Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Member of the Board of Supervisors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener of the meeting of the Board of Directors must send a notice of the meeting no later than 05 working days before the meeting date. The notice of the meeting must clearly specify the time and place of the meeting, the agenda, the issues to be discussed and decided. The notice of the meeting must be accompanied by documents to be used at the meeting and the member's ballot.
The notice of the Board of Directors meeting can be sent by invitation letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as stipulated in the Company's Charter and ensuring that it reaches the contact address of each Member of the Board of Directors registered at the Company.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener shall send the notice of the meeting and accompanying documents to the members of the Board of Supervisors as with the members of the Board of Directors.
Members of the Board of Supervisors have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors; have the right to discuss but not to vote.

Article 59. Conditions for Holding a Meeting of the Board of Directors

A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held when at least 3/4 of the total number of members are present. In the event that the meeting convened as stipulated in Article 58 of these Regulations does not have the sufficient number of members present as prescribed, a second meeting shall be convened within 07 days from the date of the first scheduled meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be held if more than half of the members of the Board of Directors are present.

Article 60. Voting Procedures

1. A Member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed present and voting at a meeting in the following circumstances:
 - a. Attending and voting in person at the meeting;
 - b. Authorizing another person to attend the meeting and vote as stipulated in Article 62 of these Regulations;
 - c. Attending and voting via video conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
 - d. Submitting a ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
 - e. Submitting a ballot by other means as prescribed in the Company Charter.
2. In the case of submitting a ballot to the meeting via mail, the ballot must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than 01 hour before the commencement of the meeting. The ballot shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
3. Voting
 - a. Except as provided in point b, clause 3 of this Article, each Member of the Board of Directors, or an authorized person as stipulated in clause 1 of this Article, personally present at the Board of Directors meeting shall have one (01) vote;

- b. A Member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which that Member, or a person related to that Member, has an interest, and that interest conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company;
 - c. As stipulated in point d, clause 3, of this Article, when an issue arises at the meeting related to the interest or voting rights of a Member of the Board of Directors, and that Member does not voluntarily waive their voting right, the chairperson's ruling shall be final, unless the nature or extent of the Member's interest has not been fully disclosed;
 - d. A Member of the Board of Directors benefiting from a contract stipulated in points a and b, clause 6, Article 43 of the Company Charter shall be deemed to have a significant interest in that contract;
 - e. The Controlling Shareholder has the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and the right to discuss matters, but not to vote.
4. A Member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction that has been signed or is expected to be signed with the Company, and is aware of their own interest therein, has the responsibility to disclose this interest at the first meeting of the Board where the signing of such contract or transaction is discussed. If a Member of the Board of Directors is unaware of their own and related person's interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, this Member must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after the Member becomes aware of having, or will have, an interest in the aforementioned transaction or contract.
5. The Board of Directors has the right to obtain the written opinions of the Members of the Board of Directors for the adoption of Board Resolutions when passing matters within the Board's authority as outlined in Clause 2, Article 27 of the Company Charter.
6. A Resolution in the form of written opinions is passed based on the approval of the majority of the Members of the Board of Directors having voting rights. This Resolution has the same effect and validity as a resolution passed at a meeting.
7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is responsible for sending the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting to the Members, and those minutes shall serve as authentic evidence of the work conducted during the meeting unless objections to the content of the minutes are raised within ten (10) days from the date of sending. The minutes of the Board of Directors meeting are prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in English. The minutes must bear the signatures of the chairperson and the minute-taker.

Article 61. Method of passing Resolutions of the Board of Directors

Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors are passed if approved by a majority of the members present at the meeting (over 50%); in the event of a tie, the final decision rests with the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Article 62. Authorization for another person to attend the meeting of a Board member

Members must attend all Board of Directors meetings. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by a majority of the Board of Directors.

Article 63. Preparing minutes of Board of Directors meetings

 - f. Summary of each member's comments in the order of the meeting's proceedings;
 - g. Voting results, clearly stating the members who approved, disapproved, and abstained;
 - h. Matters approved and corresponding approval rate;
 - i. Full name and signature of the chairman and minute-taker, except as provided in Article 64 of these Regulations.
2. Minutes of Board of Directors meetings and documents used in the meeting must be kept at the company's head office.
3. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and in a foreign language have equal legal validity. In case of discrepancies between the Vietnamese and foreign language versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.
4. The chairman, minute-taker, and signatories of the minutes are responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the Board of Directors meeting minutes.

Article 64. In case the chairman and/or secretary refuse to sign the minutes of the Board of Directors Meeting

In the event that the chairman and/or the minute-taker refuse to sign the minutes, but if all other Board members present at the meeting sign and the minutes contain all the contents as prescribed in points a, b, c, d, dd, e, g and h of Article 63 of these Regulations, the minutes shall be valid.

Article 65. Notification of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors

After issuing the Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors, the Company is responsible for disseminating information internally within the Company, to relevant authorities, on mass media, and on the Company's website according to current procedures and regulations.

Section 5 - Sub-committees of the Board of Directors

Article 66. Sub-committees under the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors may establish sub-committees under its authority to oversee development policy, human resources, compensation, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of a sub-committee, determined by the Board of Directors, must be at least [03 people], including members of the Board of Directors and external members. Independent Board members/non-executive Board members should constitute a majority in the sub-committee, and one of these members shall be appointed as Head of the Sub-committee by decision of the Board of Directors. Sub-committee activities must comply with the Board of Directors' regulations. Resolutions of the sub-committee are valid only when approved by a majority of members present and voting at the sub-committee meeting.

2. The execution of decisions of the Board of Directors, or of its subcommittees, must comply with applicable laws and regulations and the provisions of the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

Section 6 - Selection, Appointment, and Dismissal of the Corporate Governance Officer

Article 67. Standards for the Corporate Governance Officer

The Corporate Governance Officer may not concurrently work for an approved audit organization that is auditing the Company's financial statements.

Article 68. Appointment of the Corporate Governance Officer

The Company's Board of Directors must appoint at least 01 Corporate Governance Officer to support corporate governance activities within the enterprise. The Corporate Governance Officer may concurrently serve as the Company Secretary as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 156 of the Enterprise Law.

Article 69. Cases of Dismissal of the Corporate Governance Officer

The Board of Directors may dismiss/remove the Corporate Governance Officer when necessary, but not in violation of current labor laws.

Article 70. Notification of Appointment and Dismissal of the Corporate Governance Officer

After the decision to appoint or dismiss the Corporate Governance Officer, the Company is responsible for announcing the information internally within the Company and to relevant authorities, in the mass media, and on the Company's website, following the procedures and regulations of current law.

Article 71. Rights and Obligations of the Corporate Governance Officer

The Corporate Governance Officer has the following rights and obligations:

1. Advise the Board of Directors on organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed, and on matters pertaining to the relationship between the Company and its shareholders;
2. Prepare meetings of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board, and the General Meeting of Shareholders at the request of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board;
3. Advise on meeting procedures;
4. Attend meetings;
5. Advise on the procedures for drafting resolutions of the Board of Directors in accordance with legal regulations;
6. Provide financial information, copies of minutes of Board of Directors meetings, and other information to members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board;
7. Monitor and report to the Board of Directors on the Company's information disclosure activities;
8. Serve as the point of contact for relevant stakeholders;
9. Maintain confidentiality of information in accordance with legal regulations and the Company's Charter;
10. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

CHAPTER 4 – SUPERVISORY BOARD

Section 1. General Provisions

Article 72. Roles, Rights, and Obligations of the Supervisory Board, and Responsibilities of Supervisory Board Members

1. Members of the Supervisory Board have the rights stipulated in the Enterprise Law, relevant laws, and the Company's Charter and the Supervisory Board's Operating Regulations, including the right to access information and documents related to the Company's operational status. Members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other executives of the enterprise have the responsibility to provide timely and complete information as requested by members of the Supervisory Board.
2. Members of the Supervisory Board are responsible for complying with the provisions of law, the Company's Charter, the Supervisory Board's Operating Regulations, and professional ethics in carrying out their assigned rights and obligations.
3. The Supervisory Board has the rights and obligations as stipulated in Article 170 of the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter, as well as the following rights and obligations:
 - a. Propose and recommend to the General Meeting of Shareholders the approval of the list of audit organizations permitted to audit the company's financial statements; decide on the audit organization permitted to inspect the company's operations, and dismiss the approved auditor when deemed necessary.
 - b. Responsible to shareholders for their supervisory activities.
 - c. Supervise the company's financial situation and the compliance with the law in the activities of members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other managers.
 - d. Ensure coordinated operations with the Board of Directors, the General Director, and shareholders.
 - e. In the event that any violation of law or the company's charter by a member of the Board of Directors, the General Director, or other company executives is detected, the Board of Supervisors must notify the Board of Directors in writing within 48 hours, requiring the violator to cease the violation and provide solutions to remedy the consequences.
 - f. Develop the Regulations on Operation of the Board of Supervisors and submit them to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval. The Minister of Finance shall guide the model Regulations on Operation of the Board of Supervisors for public companies to refer to when developing their Regulations on Operation of the Board of Supervisors.
 - g. Report at the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Article 290 of Decree 155/2020/ND-CP.

Section 2. Regulations on Term, Quantity, Composition, and Structure of the Board of Supervisors Members

Article 73. Number, term, composition, and structure of the Board of Supervisors members

1. The number of members of the Board of Supervisors of the Company is from 03 to 05 people.
2. The term of a Supervisor shall not exceed 05 years and may be re-elected with an unlimited number of terms.
3. Members of the Board of Supervisors are not necessarily shareholders of the company.

4. The Head of the Board of Supervisors is elected by the Board of Supervisors from among the Supervisors; the election, dismissal, and removal are based on the majority principle. The rights and obligations of the Head of the Board of Supervisors are stipulated in the company's charter. The Board of Supervisors must have more than half of its Supervisors residing in Vietnam.
5. In the event that Supervisors have the same term expiration date and new term Supervisors have not yet been elected, the expired term Supervisors shall continue to exercise their rights and obligations until the new term Supervisors are elected and assume their duties.

Article 74. Standards and Conditions for Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. Supervisors must meet the following standards and conditions:
 - a. Not subject to the provisions of Clause 2, Article 17 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b. Trained in one of the following majors: economics, finance, accounting, auditing, law, business administration, or a major suitable for the business activities of the enterprise;

 - g. Other standards and conditions as prescribed by relevant laws and the company's charter.
2. In addition to the standards and conditions specified in Clause 1 of this Article, Supervisors of public companies and state-owned enterprises as prescribed in Point b, Clause 1, Article 88 of the Law on Enterprises may not be family members of enterprise managers of the company and the parent company; representatives of the enterprise's capital, representatives of the state capital at the parent company and at the company.
3. The Head of the Board of Supervisors must hold at least a Bachelor's degree in economics, finance, accounting, auditing, law, business administration, or a major related to the business operations of the enterprise.

Article 75. Nomination and Candidacy for Membership of the Board of Supervisors

1. The nomination and candidacy for membership of the Board of Supervisors shall be conducted similarly to the provisions of Clause 1, Article 25 of the Company Charter. Shareholders holding voting shares have the right to combine their voting rights to nominate Supervisors. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from 5% to less than 10% of the total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 10% to less than 30% may nominate a maximum of two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% may nominate a maximum of three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% may nominate a maximum of four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% may nominate a maximum of five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% may nominate a maximum of six (06) candidates; from 70% to 80% may nominate a maximum of seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to 90% may nominate a maximum of eight (08) candidates.

2. In the event that the number of candidates for the Board of Supervisors through nomination and candidacy is insufficient, the incumbent Board of Supervisors may nominate additional candidates or organize nominations similarly as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 49 of these Regulations. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Supervisors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the law.

Article 76. Method of Electing Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. The voting to elect members of the Board of Supervisors must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Supervisors, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. Successful candidates for the Board of Supervisors are determined based on the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Supervisors, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes or selection will be made based on the criteria specified in the election regulations, the Board of Supervisors' operating regulations, or the Company Charter.
2. If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of members of the Board of Supervisors to be elected, the election of members of the Board of Supervisors may be conducted by cumulative voting as described above or by voting (approval, disapproval, abstention). The approval voting ratio shall be conducted in accordance with Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company Charter.

Article 77. Cases of Dismissal and Removal of Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss a member of the Board of Supervisors in the following cases:
 - a. No longer meets the standards and conditions to be a member of the Board of Supervisors as prescribed in Article 169 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b. Has submitted a resignation letter and it has been approved;
 - c. Other cases as stipulated by the Company Charter.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove a member of the Board of Supervisors in the following cases:
 - a. Fails to complete assigned tasks and duties;
 - b. Fails to exercise their rights and obligations for six consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
 - c. Repeatedly violates or seriously breaches the obligations of a member of the Board of Supervisors as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter;
 - d. Other cases as resolved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 78. Notification of election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Supervisors.

After the Decision on the election, dismissal, or removal of a Supervisor, the Company is responsible for publicizing the information internally within the Company and to relevant authorities, on mass media, and on the Company's website according to the procedures and regulations of current law.

Article 79. Salaries and other benefits of members of the Board of Supervisors.

1. Members of the Board of Supervisors shall be paid salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders decides the total amount of salaries, remuneration, bonuses, other benefits, and the annual operating budget of the Board of Supervisors;
2. Members of the Board of Supervisors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses for meals, accommodation, travel, and the cost of using independent consulting services. The total remuneration and expenses shall not exceed the total annual operating budget of the Board of Supervisors approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
3. Salaries and operating expenses of the Board of Supervisors are included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax, other relevant legal provisions, and must be itemized separately in the Company's annual financial statements.

2. Not be a family member of the enterprise manager, Supervisor of the company and the parent company; representative of the State capital, representative of the enterprise capital at the company and the parent company;
3. Have professional qualifications and experience in business administration of the company.

Article 82. Appointment, dismissal, contract signing, and termination of the contract with the General Director

The Board of Directors shall appoint 01 member of the Board of Directors or hire another person as General Director.

The Board of Directors may dismiss the General Director when a majority of the voting members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting agree and appoint a new General Director as a replacement.

The Board of Directors has the authority to sign/terminate contracts and decide the terms of labor contracts as stipulated in Point i, Clause 2, Article 27 and Article 35 of the company's charter.

Article 83. Notification of appointment, dismissal, contract signing, and contract termination for the General Director

After the decision to elect, dismiss, or remove the General Director, the Company is responsible for announcing the information internally within the Company and to relevant authorities, on mass media, and on the Company's website according to the procedures and regulations of current law.

Article 84. Salary and other benefits of the General Director

1. The General Director receives salary and bonuses. The salary and bonuses of the General Director are decided by the Board of Directors.
2. Executive compensation is included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax, is shown as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

CHAPTER 6 – OTHER ACTIVITIES

Section 1 – Regulations on coordination of activities between the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, and the General Director

Article 85. Procedures and sequence for convening, sending meeting invitations, recording minutes, and announcing meeting results between the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, and the General Director

Procedures and sequence for convening, sending meeting invitations, recording minutes, and announcing meeting results between the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the Director are carried out according to the procedures and sequence for convening Board of Directors meetings as stipulated in Section 4, Chapter 3 of these Regulations.

Article 86. Notification of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors to the Board of Supervisors

Resolutions/Decisions and minutes of Board of Directors meetings, after being issued, must be sent to the Supervisors at the same time and in the same manner as to members of the Board of Directors.

Article 87. Notification of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors to the General Director

Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors (with contents related to the responsibilities, authorities, and obligations of the Director), after being issued, must be sent to the General Director at the same time and in the same manner as to members of the Board of Directors.

Article 88. Cases where the Board of Supervisors and the General Director request to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors and matters requiring consultation with the Board of Directors

1. Cases where the Board of Supervisors requests to convene a Board of Directors meeting
 - a. The Board of Supervisors may request to convene a Board of Directors meeting in the following cases:
 - When there is a request from a shareholder/group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law.
 - When it is deemed that the Supervisor's right to access information and documents related to the company's operating situation is not fully implemented in accordance with current law and the company's charter;
 - When detecting violations of law or violations of the company's charter by members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other company executives after having made a written notification to the Board of Directors as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 40 of the company's charter, but the violator has not ceased the violation or implemented solutions to remedy the consequences;
 - b. The General Director may request to convene a Board of Directors meeting in the following cases:
 - When deeming that the rights of the General Director as stipulated in Article 35 of the Company Charter are not being enforced;
 - Upon discovery of any violation of law or the Company Charter by other corporate executives after issuing a written notification to the Board of Directors, but the violator has not ceased the violation or implemented remedial solutions;
2. Matters requiring consultation with the Board of Directors:
 - a. Propose to the Board of Directors the organizational structure plan and internal management regulations of the Company;
 - b. Propose measures to enhance the Company's operations and management;

- c. The General Director must formulate plans for the Board of Directors' approval regarding matters related to recruitment, employee termination, salaries, social insurance, benefits, rewards, and disciplinary actions for employees and corporate executives.
- d. - 5. Report on the implementation of other matters authorized by the Board of Directors and the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- 6. Report on other matters as requested by the Board of Directors.

Article 90. Review the implementation of resolutions and other delegated matters of the Board of Directors for the Director.

Based on the General Director's report on the performance of assigned duties and responsibilities as stipulated in Article 80 of these Regulations, the Board of Directors will review the implementation of resolutions and other delegated matters of the Board of Directors with the Director (General Director).

Article 91. Matters on which the General Director must report, provide information, and the method of notification to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board

- 1. Matters on which the General Director must report, provide information, and the method of notification to the Board of Directors:
 - a. The contents as specified in Article 89 of these regulations;
 - b. The Director is obligated to notify the Board of Directors of transactions between the Company, subsidiaries, and other companies in which the Company holds a controlling interest of 50% or more of the charter capital, with that entity itself or with related persons of that entity as prescribed by law.

- c. Other matters requiring consultation with and reporting to the Board of Directors must be submitted at least seven (07) business days in advance, and the Board of Directors will respond within seven (07) business days.

Specifically, in the case of approving contracts and transactions as prescribed in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law, with a value less than [35%] of the total asset value of the enterprise stated in the most recent financial statement or another smaller ratio or value as stipulated in the company's Charter, the company representative signing the contract or transaction must notify the members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisor about the related parties to that contract or transaction and enclose the draft contract or the main contents of the transaction. The Board of Directors shall decide on the approval of the contract or transaction within 15 days from the date of receiving the notification, unless the company's Charter stipulates a different timeframe; members of the Board of Directors with related interests to the parties involved in the contract or transaction do not have voting rights.

2. Matters the General Director must report, provide information on, and methods of notification to the Member of the Board of Supervisors:
 - a. Reports of the General Director submitted to the Board of Directors or other documents issued by the company shall be sent to the Supervisors at the same time and in the same manner as to the members of the Board of Directors.
 - b. The General Director and other executive officers of the enterprise must fully, accurately, and promptly provide information and documents on the management, administration, and business operations of the company as requested by the Supervisor or the Board of Supervisors.
 - c. The method of notification to the Member of the Board of Supervisors shall be the same as for the Board of Directors.

Article 92. Coordination of control, administration, and supervision activities between members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, and the General Director according to the specific duties of the aforementioned members.

1. Coordination of activities between the Member of the Board of Supervisors and the Board of Directors:

The Member of the Board of Supervisors plays a role in monitoring, coordinating, advising, and providing complete, timely, and accurate information. Specifically, as follows:

- a. Regularly informing the Board of Directors about operational results, consulting with the Board of Directors before submitting reports, conclusions, and recommendations to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- b. In the meetings of the Board of Supervisors, the Board of Supervisors has the right to request members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and representatives of the approved audit organization to attend and answer matters requiring clarification;
- c. Periodic and unscheduled inspections by the Member of the Board of Supervisors must have written conclusions (no later than fifteen (15) days from the date of completion) sent to the Board of Directors to provide further basis for the Board of Directors in the management of the Company. Depending on the level and results of the aforementioned inspection, the Member of the Board of Supervisors needs to discuss and agree with the Board of Directors and the General Director before reporting to the General Meeting of Shareholders. In case of disagreement, the Member of the Board of Supervisors is authorized to reserve their opinion, which shall be recorded in the minutes, and the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall be responsible for reporting to the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders;

- d. In the event that the Board of Supervisors detects any violations of law or violations of the Company's Charter by members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors shall notify the Board of Directors in writing within forty-eight (48) hours, requesting the violator to cease the violation and implement remedial measures;
 - e. The Supervisor is obligated to notify the Board of Directors of any transactions between the Company, its subsidiaries, and other companies in which the Company holds a controlling interest of 50% or more of the charter capital with that same entity or with related persons of that entity as prescribed by law;

 - e. Other matters requiring the Board of Directors' opinion as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 88 of these Regulations must be submitted at least seven (07) business days before the date the Board of Directors' response is expected.

Section 2 – Regulations on Annual Evaluation for Commendation and Disciplinary Actions for Board of Directors' members, Member of the Board of Supervisors, General Director, and other company executives.

Article 93. Regulations on the evaluation of the performance of Board of Directors' members, Supervisors, the General Director and other executives.

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for establishing performance evaluation criteria for all Board of Directors' members, the General Director, and other executives.
2. The performance evaluation criteria must harmonize the interests of company executives with the long-term interests of the Company and shareholders. Financial and non-financial indicators used in the evaluation are carefully considered and decided by the Board of Directors at each point in time. Whereby, non-financial indicators can be mentioned as: the interests of stakeholders, operating efficiency, progress and improvements achieved, etc.
3. Annually, based on the assigned functions, tasks and established evaluation criteria/achieved results, the Board of Directors organizes the performance evaluation of its members.
4. The performance evaluation of the members of the Board of Supervisors is organized and implemented according to the method mentioned in the organizational structure and operation of the Board of Supervisors.
5. The performance evaluation of other executives is carried out in accordance with internal regulations or can be based on the self-assessment of these executives.

Article 94. Commendation

1. The Board of Directors or the Remuneration Committee (if any) is responsible for developing the commendation policy. Commendations are made based on the performance evaluation results in Article 93 of these Regulations.
2. Forms of commendation: in cash, in shares (issuance of shares under the employee stock option program) or other forms developed by the Board of Directors or the Remuneration Committee. The forms of commendation shall be planned by the General Director and submitted to the Board of Directors for approval. In cases exceeding authority, they will be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval.
3. The commendation regime for Board of Directors' members and supervisors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
4. For company executives: the commendation fund is deducted from the Company's Welfare and Commendation Fund and other legitimate sources. The level of commendation is based on the actual annual business results, the General Director shall propose to the Board of Directors for approval. In cases exceeding authority, it will be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval.

Article 95. Disciplinary Action

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for establishing disciplinary forms based on the nature and extent of the violation. Disciplinary action must have dismissal or removal from office as the highest form.
2. Board of Directors' members, members of the Board of Supervisors, and company executives who do not fulfill their duties with honesty, diligence, and prudence shall be personally liable for the damages they cause.

3. When performing their duties, if Board of Directors' members, members of the Board of Supervisors, or company executives commit acts that violate legal regulations or the Company's regulations, depending on the severity of the violation, they will be subject to disciplinary action, administrative sanctions, or criminal prosecution in accordance with the provisions of law and the Company's Charter. In the event of damage to the interests of the Company, shareholders, or others, compensation shall be made in accordance with the provisions of law.

CHAPTER 7 - AMENDMENTS TO CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REGULATIONS

Article 96. Supplementing and amending the Company's Governance Regulations.

1. The supplementation or amendment of these Regulations must be considered and decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. In the event that there are relevant legal provisions pertaining to the company's operations that are not addressed within these regulations, or in the event of new legal provisions that differ from the clauses herein, those legal provisions shall naturally apply and govern the company's operations.

CHAPTER 8 - EFFECTIVE DATE

Article 97. Effective Date

1. These Regulations, comprising 08 Chapters and 97 Articles, were unanimously approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders of Saigon Telecommunications Technology Joint Stock Company on 25/04/25 and the full text of these regulations was concurrently accepted into effect. Accordingly, these Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance supersede all previous versions of the Company's Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance issued prior to the effective date of these Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.
2. This Regulation is the sole and official version of the Company.
3. Any copy or excerpt of the Corporate Governance Regulation must bear the signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

REGULATIONS GUIDING MEETING ATTENDANCE ONLINE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS AND ELECTRONIC VOTING OF SAIGON TELECOMMUNICATION & TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Scope and Subjects of Application

These regulations govern online attendance and electronic voting by delegates at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders/Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of Saigon Telecommunication & Technologies Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Company").

Article 2. Interpretation of Terms

- a. "Delegate" refers to a Shareholder or an authorized representative (the authorized person).
- b. "Online General Meeting of Shareholders" refers to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders or Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held via the internet, enabling participants to exercise their voting/election rights.
- c. "Electronic Voting" refers to the process whereby a Delegate connects to the internet and casts their vote/ballot through the Electronic Voting System specified and announced by the Company.
- d. "Electronic Voting System" refers to the system that provides delegates with the tools to exercise their related rights when participating in the online General Meeting of Shareholders.
- e. "Identifying Factor" refers to the necessary information for accurately identifying a subject in a given context.
- f. "Force Majeure Event" refers to unforeseen and insurmountable events occurring beyond the control of the convener of the meeting, despite the implementation of all necessary and feasible measures.

- g. "Cumulative Voting – Equal Distribution" refers to a method of cumulative voting where the delegate allocates all votes to one candidate or divides the votes equally among multiple candidates. After equal division, the corresponding number of votes for each candidate is rounded down to the nearest whole number. Remaining odd votes (if any) are discarded.
- h. "Cumulative Voting – Numerical Entry" refers to a method of cumulative voting where the Delegate specifies the number of votes for each candidate, ensuring the total votes cast for all selected candidates equals the total votes held by the representing Delegate.

CHAPTER II

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

Article 3. Notice of Convening the General Meeting of Shareholders

The Company adheres to the provisions of Article 18 of the Company's Charter.

Article 4. Conditions and Procedures for Delegates to Participate in the Online General Meeting of Shareholders and Electronic Voting

a. Conditions for Participation:

- Being listed in the shareholder list (DSCĐ) eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, prepared according to the Company's notice of rights exercise.
- Authorized representatives must meet the eligibility criteria stipulated by law and the Company's Charter.

b. Technical Requirements:

- Delegates require an internet-connected electronic device (e.g., computer, tablet, mobile phone, or other internet-capable electronic device).

c. Procedures:

- Delegates access the provided link and log in using the information stipulated in Article 4 of these Regulations to participate in the Online General Meeting of Shareholders and conduct electronic voting within the Electronic Voting System.

Article 5. Providing Login Information and Conducting Electronic Voting

- a. The link to access the electronic voting system, username, password, and other identifying factors (if any) for participating in the Online General Meeting of Shareholders will be provided in the meeting invitation (or through other login information notification methods as determined by the Board of Directors). Delegates are responsible for safeguarding their username, password, and other provided identifying factors to ensure that only they can cast votes within the Electronic Voting System, and they bear full responsibility for this registered information.
- b. If a Representative requests to be provided with login information again, the Organizing Committee may notify them directly or via email/phone. Providing login information via email or phone will only be conducted based on shareholder information from the list of shareholders eligible to vote, compiled by the Vietnam Securities Depository Center according to the Company's notice of rights exercise.
- c. Representatives use their login name, password, or other identification factors (if any) to access the electronic voting system and cast their votes according to the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 6. Method of Recording Representatives' Attendance at the Online General Meeting of Shareholders

A Representative is recorded by the electronic voting system as attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders when they access the system using the access information provided as stipulated in Article 4 of these Regulations.

Article 7. Regulations on Online Proxy Voting

- a. Proxy voting shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 16 of the Company's Charter.
- b. Shareholders must provide complete information for proxy voting, especially the proxy recipient's information: phone number, contact address, and email address. This serves as the basis for issuing the login name, password, and other identifying factors (if any) to the proxy recipient.
- c. Validity of Proxy: A proxy is only legally valid when the following conditions are met:

- When the shareholder completes all information on the online proxy form issued by the Company or as prescribed by civil law and completes the online proxy process.
 - The printed proxy form, issued by the Company or as prescribed by civil law, must be fully signed and clearly state the full name and bear the seal (if applicable for organizations) of both the authorizing shareholder and the proxy recipient.
 - The Company receives the original proxy form before the official commencement of the General Meeting.
- d. Cancellation of Proxy for Shareholders Who Have Voted Online: Shareholders must send an official written request to cancel their online proxy to the Company before the official commencement of the General Meeting. Please note that the effective time of the cancellation will be based on the time the Company receives the official written request.
- e. Proxy cancellation will be invalid if the proxy representative has already voted on any matter within the agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 8. E-Voting Period

The e-voting period is specifically defined in the working regulations of the General Meeting. Representatives can access the electronic voting system and cast their votes 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except in cases of system maintenance or other reasons beyond the Company's control. After the voting period ends, the system will not record any further e-votes from Representatives.

Article 9. E-Voting Procedures

a. Voting Procedures:

- For each matter presented for voting at the General Meeting and configured in the electronic voting system, Representatives choose one of three voting options: Approve, Disapprove, or Abstain.
- Afterward, the Representative confirms their vote for the electronic voting system to record the result.

b. Election Procedures:

- Cumulative Voting Method: Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter, the voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted using the cumulative voting method (equal cumulative voting or numbered voting). Accordingly, Delegates shall cast their votes by marking the "Cumulative Vote" box or clearly indicating the number of votes in the "Number of Votes" box for the respective candidates on the Ballot installed in the electronic voting system. Subsequently, the Delegates shall proceed to confirm their votes for the electronic voting system to record the results.

c. Some other regulations when conducting electronic voting:

- In the event that a Delegate does not complete all voting matters and elections according to the agenda of the General Meeting, the unresolved matters and elections shall be considered as the Delegate not having cast a vote on those matters.
- In the event of matters arising outside the sent agenda of the general meeting, Delegates may cast additional votes. If Delegates do not vote on arising matters, it shall be considered that the Delegates did not cast a vote on those arising matters.
- Delegates may change their voting and election results (but cannot cancel the voting and election results); including the results of additional votes on matters arising outside the General Meeting agenda. The online system only records vote counting for the final voting and election results at the end of the electronic voting period for each round of vote counting specified in the working regulations of the general meeting.
- In the case of numbered voting by Delegates: An invalid ballot is a ballot where the total number of votes for the candidates is different from (greater than or less than) the total number of votes of the represented Delegate calculated at the time of vote counting.

Article 10. Vote Counting Method

When a Delegate casts a vote/elects, the number of votes and ballots are recorded on the system based on the principle of the number of approving cards, the number of disapproving cards, and the number of abstaining cards.

The vote counting minutes are the minutes recording the vote counting results of all Delegates attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders through the electronic voting system.

Article 11. Announcement of Vote Counting Results

Based on the vote counting minutes recorded as prescribed in Article 10 of these Regulations, the Vote Counting Board shall check, synthesize, and report to the Chairperson the vote counting results for each matter according to the agenda of the general meeting. The vote counting results shall be announced by the chairperson immediately before the adjournment of the meeting.

Article 12. Method of Objecting to Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The request to cancel the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be implemented according to the provisions of Article 24 of the Company's Charter.

Article 13. Minutes of the Online General Meeting of Shareholders and the Form of Approval

- a. The recording of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 150 of the Law on Enterprises 2020.
- b. The preparation of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 23 of the Company's Charter.
- c. The venue stated in the minutes of the online General Meeting of Shareholders is the location where the Chairperson of the General Meeting is present to preside over the General Meeting. This location must be within the territory of Vietnam.
- d. The form of approval of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders is specifically stipulated in the Company's working regulations at the General Meeting of Shareholders session.

Article 14. Rights and Obligations of Delegates when Participating in Electronic Voting

- a. All matters within the authority of the General Meeting, as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter, shall be voted upon and elected via electronic voting.
- b. Delegates are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of their access information to ensure that only they can vote on the electronic voting system. All voting transactions conducted by a Delegate on the electronic voting system shall be deemed as their final decision. Delegates bear full legal and corporate responsibility for the results of their electronic voting transactions on the system.

- c. Delegates must immediately notify the Company for prompt action if their username, password, and/or other identifying factors are lost, stolen, disclosed, or suspected of being disclosed, by contacting the Company to lock the access credentials and security devices. Delegates are responsible for any damages, losses, and other risks that occur before the Company receives their notification if the cause is attributable to the Delegate.

Article 15. Discussion at the Online Shareholders' Meeting

a. Principles:

- Discussions shall only take place within the allotted time and pertain to matters presented in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- Only Delegates are permitted to participate in the discussion.
- Delegates wishing to speak must register their discussion topics as specified in the meeting's rules of procedure.
- The Secretariat will arrange the Delegates' discussion topics in order of registration and forward them to the Chairperson.

b. Addressing Delegates' Comments:

- Based on the Delegates' discussion points, the Chairperson or a designated member will address their comments.
- If, due to time constraints, questions are not addressed directly during the Meeting, the Company will respond subsequently.

Article 16. In Case of Force Majeure

- a. During the online Shareholders' Meeting and electronic voting, unforeseen events beyond the Company's control (force majeure) may occur at the Chairperson's location (excluding force majeure events affecting individual delegates) such as: natural disasters, fire, power outages or internet disconnections, technical issues at the Chairperson's location, or directives from the government, state agencies, or other authorized entities.

- b. If such force majeure events occur and cannot be resolved within 60 minutes, the Chairperson will declare the meeting adjourned. All matters voted upon and approved prior to the adjournment (if any) shall remain valid. These matters shall not be re-voted upon in the next convened Shareholders' Meeting.

CHAPTER III OTHER PROVISIONS

Article 17. Other Provisions

Other related matters not addressed in these Regulations shall be governed by the Company's Charter, the Company's Internal Governance Regulations, and relevant laws. These Regulations constitute an Appendix to the Company's Internal Governance Regulations.

Article 18. Effective Date

- a. These Regulations, comprising 3 Chapters and 18 Articles, are effective from the date of issuance.
- b. Delegates, individuals, organizations, and departments involved in the Company's online General Meeting of Shareholders are responsible for complying with these Regulations.

CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Scope of Regulation and Subjects of Application

1. Scope of Regulation: The Regulations on Operation of the Board of Directors stipulate the organizational structure of personnel, operating principles, powers, and duties of the Board of Directors and the Member of the Board of Directors, in order to operate in accordance with the provisions of the Enterprise Law, the Company Charter, and other relevant legal regulations.
2. Subjects of Application: These regulations apply to the Board of Directors, the Member of the Board of Directors, and related subjects mentioned herein.

Article 2. Operating Principles of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors operates on the principle of collective responsibility. Members of the Board of Directors are individually responsible for their assigned tasks and jointly responsible before the General Meeting of Shareholders and before the law for resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors regarding the Company's development.
2. The Board of Directors assigns responsibility to the General Director for organizing and implementing the resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER II. MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 3. Rights and Obligations of Members of the Board of Directors

1. Members of the Board of Directors have full rights and responsibilities as prescribed by the Enterprise Law, the Securities Law, relevant laws, and the Company Charter, including the right to be provided with information and documents on the financial status and business operations of the Company and its units.
2. Members of the Board of Directors have the obligations as prescribed by the Enterprise Law, the Company Charter, and the following obligations:
 - a) Perform their duties honestly and prudently in the best interests of the shareholders and the Company;
 - b) Attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and express opinions on the issues discussed;
 - c) Promptly and fully report to the Board of Directors any remuneration received from subsidiaries, affiliated companies, and other organizations;
 - d) Report to the Board of Directors at the nearest meeting on transactions between the Company, its subsidiaries, and other companies where the Company holds a controlling interest of 50% or more of the charter capital with a Member of the Board of Directors and related persons of such member; transactions between the Company and companies in which a Member of the Board of Directors is a founding member or a business manager during the three years immediately preceding the transaction date;
 - d) Publicly disclose information when conducting transactions of the Company's shares in accordance with the provisions of law.
3. The independent Member of the Board of Directors of the Company must prepare an evaluation report on the activities of the Board of Directors.

Article 4. Right to be provided with information of the Member of the Board of Directors

1. Members of the Board of Directors have the right to request the General Director, Deputy General Director, and other managers in the Company to provide information and documents regarding the financial status and business operations of the Company and of units within the Company.

2. The enterprise manager is required to provide information and documents promptly, fully, and accurately as requested by the Member of the Board of Directors. The order and procedures for requesting and providing information are specified as follows:

- Board of Directors' members must submit the request for information to the Company's Board of Directors.
- If deemed necessary, the Board of Directors will convene a meeting to obtain opinions within 07 working days from the date of receiving the request from the Board of Directors' members regarding the content for which information is requested.
- If the above content is approved by the Board of Directors, the requested manager will provide the requested information within 07 days and be responsible for explaining any questions from the Board of Directors' members regarding the content for which information is requested.
- The Member of the Board of Directors, after using the information, shall report to the Board of Directors (if deemed necessary) and ensure the confidentiality of the information.

Article 5. Number, term, and structure of the Members of the Board of Directors

1. The number of Members of the Board of Directors is at least 05 people and at most 11 people. The specific number of Members of the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at each point in time.

2. The term of the Member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed 05 years and may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may only be elected as an independent Member of the Board of Directors of a Company for a maximum of 02 consecutive terms.

3. In the event that all Members of the Board of Directors end their term at the same time, those members shall continue to be Members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace and take over the work.

4. Structure of the Members of the Board of Directors:

a) The structure of the Company's Board of Directors must ensure that at least 1/3 of the total number of Members of the Board of Directors are non-executive members. The company limits the number of Members of the Board of Directors concurrently holding executive positions in the Company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.

The total number of independent Members of the Board of Directors must comply with the following regulations:

- a) There must be at least 01 independent member in the case of a Company with 03 to 05 Members of the Board of Directors;
- b) There must be at least 02 independent members in the case of a Company with 06 to 08 Members of the Board of Directors;
- c) There must be at least 03 independent members in the case of a Company with 09 to 11 Members of the Board of Directors.

4. Independent Members of the Board of Directors have all the rights and obligations of members of the board of directors as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, the Company's Charter, and these regulations.

5. Independent members of the board of directors are organized and coordinated according to the following principles:

- a) Exercise the assigned rights and obligations honestly, prudently, and in the best way to ensure the maximum legitimate interests of the Company;

- b) Be loyal to the interests of the Company and its shareholders; refrain from utilizing the Company's information, know-how, business opportunities, position, title, and assets for personal gain or to serve the interests of other organizations or individuals;
- c) All activities of independent Members of the Board of Directors must ensure compliance with legal regulations and the Company's Charter.

Article 6. Standards and Conditions for Members of the Board of Directors

1. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the following standards and conditions:

- a) Not be subject to the provisions of Clause 2, Article 17 of the Enterprise Law;
- b) Possess professional qualifications and experience in business administration or in the Company's field, sector, or business line, and not necessarily be a shareholder of the Company, unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter;
- c) A Member of the Board of Directors of a public company may only concurrently serve as a Member of the Board of Directors at a maximum of 05 other companies.
- d) Other standards and conditions as per the Company's Charter.

2. Independent Members of the Board of Directors, as stipulated in Point b, Clause 1, Article 137 of the Enterprise Law, must meet the following standards and conditions:

- a) Not be a person currently working for the Company, the Parent Company, or a subsidiary of the Company; not be a person who has worked for the Company, the Parent Company, or a subsidiary of the Company for at least the previous 03 consecutive years;
- b) Not be a person currently receiving salary or remuneration from the Company, excluding allowances that Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to according to regulations;
- c) Not be a person whose spouse, biological father, adoptive father, biological mother, adoptive mother, biological child, adopted child, biological brother, biological sister, or biological sibling is a major shareholder of the Company; is a manager of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company;
- d) Not be a person directly or indirectly owning at least 01% of the total voting shares of the Company;
- e) Not be a person who has served as a Member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board of the Company for at least the previous 05 consecutive years, unless appointed for 02 consecutive terms;
- f) Other standards and conditions as per the Company's Charter.

3. Independent Members of the Board of Directors must notify the Board of Directors of no longer meeting the standards and conditions specified in Clause 2 of this Article and are automatically no longer independent Members of the Board of Directors from the date they no longer meet the standards and conditions. The Board of Directors must announce the case of an independent Member of the Board of Directors no longer meeting the standards and conditions at the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders or convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional or replacement independent Members of the Board of Directors within 06 months from the date of receiving the notification from the relevant independent Member of the Board of Directors.

Article 7. Chairman of the Board of Directors

- 1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected, dismissed, and removed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
- 2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company may not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
- 3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a) Establish the Board of Directors' operational programs and plans;

- b) Prepare programs, content, and documents for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair Board of Directors meetings;
 - c) Organize the approval of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - d) Supervise the implementation of Resolutions/Decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - e) Preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Enterprise Law and the Company Charter.
4. In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors resigns or is dismissed, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receipt of the resignation or dismissal.
5. In the event the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform his/her duties, he/she must authorize in writing another member to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the principles stipulated in the Company Charter. In the event there is no authorized person or the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is undergoing administrative handling measures at a compulsory detoxification facility, a compulsory education facility, flees from their place of residence, has limited or lost civil act capacity, has difficulties in perception or control of behavior, is prohibited by the Court from holding a position, practicing a profession, or doing certain jobs, the remaining members shall elect one person among the members to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors according to the principle of majority approval of the remaining members until a new decision of the Board of Directors.
6. When deemed necessary, the Board of Directors shall decide to appoint one (01) or more persons as Company Secretary with a term as decided by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may dismiss the Company Secretary when necessary but not in contravention of current labor laws. The Company Secretary has the following rights and obligations:
- a) Support the organization of convening meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors; record meeting minutes;
 - b) Support members of the Board of Directors in performing their assigned rights and obligations;
 - c) Support the Board of Directors in applying and implementing the principles of corporate governance;
 - d) Support the Company in building shareholder relations and protecting the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders; compliance with obligations to provide information, publicize information, and administrative procedures;
 - e) Other rights and obligations as prescribed in the Company Charter and the Company's internal governance regulations.

Article 8. Dismissal, Removal, Replacement, and Supplementation of Members of the Board of Directors

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss members of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) Not meeting the standards and conditions prescribed in the Enterprise Law, the Company Charter, the internal governance regulations, and these regulations;
 - b) Resigning and having the resignation approved;
 - c) Other cases stipulated in the Company Charter.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove members of the Board of Directors in the following cases:

a) Not participating in the activities of the Board of Directors for 06 consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;

b) Other cases stipulated in the Company Charter.

3. When deemed necessary, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide to replace members of the Board of Directors; dismiss or remove members of the Board of Directors in cases other than those specified in Clause 1 and Clause 2 of this Article.

4. The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members to the Board of Directors in the following circumstance:

a) The number of Board of Directors members is reduced by more than one-third compared to the number stipulated in the Company Charter. In this case, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within 60 days from the date the number of members falls below one-third.

b) The number of independent members of the Board of Directors decreases, failing to ensure the ratio prescribed in point b, clause 1, Article 137 of the Enterprise Law.

c) Except for the cases specified in points a and b of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders elects new members to replace the members of the Board of Directors who have been dismissed or removed at the most recent meeting.

Article 9. Procedures for Election, Dismissal, and Removal of Members of the Board of Directors

1. A shareholder or a group of shareholders owning at least 5% of the total ordinary shares has the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the Company Charter. The nomination of individuals to the Board of Directors is carried out as follows:

a) Ordinary shareholders forming a group to nominate individuals to the Board of Directors must notify the attending shareholders of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders holding voting shares for a continuous period of at least six (06) months have the right to combine their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors. A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from 5% to less than 10% of the total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 10% to less than 30%, a maximum of two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40%, a maximum of three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50%, a maximum of four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60%, a maximum of five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70%, a maximum of six (06) candidates; from 70% to 80%, a maximum of seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to 90%, a maximum of eight (08) candidates.

b) Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in this clause has the right to nominate one or several individuals, as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders, as candidates for the Board of Directors.

2. In the event that the number of candidates for the Board of Directors, through nominations, is still insufficient as prescribed in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law, the incumbent Board of Directors shall introduce additional candidates or organize nominations as stipulated in the Company Charter and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.

3. The voting to elect members of the Board of Directors must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. The successful candidates for the Board of Directors are determined based on the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Directors, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes, or a selection will be made based on the criteria of the election regulations or the Company Charter.

The dismissal or removal of a member of the Board of Directors shall be carried out by the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the voting principle. The approval rate shall be implemented in accordance with Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

Article 10. Notification of Election, Dismissal, or Removal of Members of the Board of Directors

1. In the event that candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company must publish information regarding the candidates at least 10 days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment to the honesty and accuracy of the published personal information and must commit to performing their duties honestly, prudently, and in the best interests of the Company if elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Information regarding candidates for the Board of Directors to be published includes:

- a) Full name, date of birth;
 - b) Qualification;
 - c) Work experience;
 - d) Other management positions (including Board of Directors positions at other companies);
 - e) Interests related to the Company and the Company's related parties;
 - f) Other information (if any) as stipulated in the Company's Charter;
 - g) The Company shall be responsible for publishing information about the companies in which the candidate is currently holding a position as a member of the Board of Directors, other management positions, and interests related to the candidate's Company (if any).
2. Notification of the results of the election, dismissal, or removal of members of the Board of Directors shall be carried out in accordance with regulations guiding information disclosure.

CHAPTER III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 11. Rights and Obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the Company's management body, having full authority on behalf of the Company to decide and exercise the Company's rights and obligations, except for the rights and obligations under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are stipulated by law, the Company's Charter, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

- a) Decide on the Company's strategy, medium-term development plan, and annual business plan;
- b) Recommend the types of shares and the total number of shares authorized for offering of each type;
- c) Decide on the sale of unsold shares within the authorized number of shares for offering of each type; decide on raising additional capital in other forms;
- d) Decide on the selling price of the Company's shares and bonds;

- e) Decide on the repurchase of shares as stipulated in Clause 1 and Clause 2, Article 133 of the Enterprise Law;
 - f) Decide on investment plans and investment projects within the authority and limits as prescribed by law;
 - g) Decide on solutions for market development, marketing, and technology;
 - h) Approve contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending, and other contracts or transactions with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's latest financial statements, except in cases where the Company's Charter stipulates a different percentage or value, and except for contracts and transactions under the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Point d, Clause 2, Article 138, Clause 1 and Clause 3, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law;
 - i) Elect, dismiss, and remove the Chairman of the Board of Directors; appoint, dismiss, execute contracts, and terminate contracts with the General Director and other key managers as stipulated in the Company's Charter; decide salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits for these managers; appoint authorized representatives to participate in the Members' Council or General Meeting of Shareholders of other companies; and decide the remuneration and other benefits of those individuals.
 - k) Supervise and direct the General Director and other managers in the daily business operations of the Company.
 - l) Decide on the organizational structure and internal management regulations of the Company; decide on the establishment of subsidiaries, branches, and representative offices; and decide on capital contributions and the purchase of shares in other enterprises.
 - m) Approve the program and content of documents for the general meeting of shareholders; convene the general meeting of shareholders; or obtain opinions for the General Meeting of Shareholders to adopt resolutions.
 - n) Submit the audited annual financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - o) Propose the dividend rate to be paid; decide the time limit and procedures for paying dividends or handling losses incurred during business operations.
 - p) Recommend the reorganization or dissolution of the Company; request bankruptcy of the Company.
 - q) Decide to issue the Board of Directors' Operating Regulations, the Company's internal governance regulations after being approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders; and the Company's information disclosure regulations.
 - r) Request the General Director, Deputy General Director, and other managers in the Company to provide information and documents regarding the financial status and business operations of the Company and of units within the Company.
- Requested managers must provide information and documents promptly, fully, and accurately as requested by members of the Board of Directors. The order and procedures for requesting and providing information are specifically stipulated in the Board of Directors' Operating Regulations.
- t) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other legal provisions, the Company's Charter, and the company's internal governance regulations.
3. The Board of Directors must report the results of its activities to the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, of the Government detailing the implementation of certain articles of the Law on Securities.

4. The Board of Directors adopts resolutions and decisions by voting at meetings, obtaining opinions in writing, or by other means as prescribed by the Company's Charter. Each member of the Board of Directors has one vote.

5. In the event that a resolution or decision adopted by the Board of Directors violates legal provisions, resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the Company's Charter, causing damage to the Company, members who approve the adoption of such resolution or decision shall be jointly and severally liable for such resolution or decision and must compensate the Company for the damage; members who object to the adoption of such resolution or decision are exempt from liability. In this case, the Company's shareholders have the right to request the Court to suspend the implementation or annul the aforementioned resolution or decision.

Article 12. Duties and Powers of the Board of Directors in Approving and Signing Transaction Contracts.

1. The Board of Directors shall approve contracts and transactions with a value of less than 35% or transactions leading to the total value of transactions arising within 12 months from the date of the first transaction having a value of less than 35% of the total asset value recorded on the most recent financial statement or another smaller ratio or value as stipulated in the Company's Charter between the Company and one of the following entities:

- Member of the Board of Directors, member of the Supervisory Board, General Director, other managers and affiliated persons of these entities;
- Shareholders, authorized representatives of shareholders owning more than 10% of the total charter capital of the Company and their affiliated persons;
- Enterprises related to the entities specified in Clause 2, Article 164 of the Enterprise Law.

2. The Company's representative signing the contract or transaction must notify the Member of the Board of Directors and the member of the Supervisory Board of the affiliated persons with respect to such contract or transaction and enclose the draft contract or the main contents of the transaction. The Board of Directors shall decide on the approval of the contract or transaction within 15 days from the date of receiving the notification, unless the Company's Charter stipulates a different time limit; Members of the Board of Directors with interests related to the parties to the contract or transaction do not have the right to vote.

3. Approve purchase, sale, loan, borrowing contracts and other contracts and transactions with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the company's most recent financial statement, unless the Company's Charter stipulates a different percentage or value; or Contracts and transactions under the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by the Enterprise Law; or Contracts specified in Clause 1 of this Article.

Article 13. Responsibilities of the Board of Directors in convening extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a) The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company;
- b) The number of remaining Members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members as prescribed by law;
- c) At the request of a shareholder or a group of shareholders as specified in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law; the request to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders must be in writing, clearly stating the reasons and purposes of the meeting, with sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders or the request document is made in multiple copies and gathers sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders;

d) At the request of the Supervisory Board;

dd. Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

2. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter, the Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within 60 days from the date the number of remaining Members of the Board of Directors or members of the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members as prescribed in the Company's Charter or upon receipt of the request specified in Point c and Point d, Clause 1 of this Article;

The Board of Directors must notify the case where an independent Member of the Board of Directors no longer meets the standards and conditions at the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders or convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional or replace the independent Member of the Board of Directors within 06 months from the date of receiving the notification from the relevant independent Member of the Board of Directors;

3. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote/elect at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made no later than 10 days before the date of sending the invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders if the Company's Charter does not stipulate a shorter period. The Company must announce information about the establishment of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 days before the last registration date;

b) Prepare the meeting agenda and content;

c) Prepare documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d) Draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the proposed content of the meeting;

d) Determine the time and location of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

e) Announce and send meeting notices of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;

g) Other tasks serving the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 14. Sub-committees assisting the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors may establish subordinate sub-committees to be responsible for development policy, human resources, compensation and benefits, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of the sub-committee is decided by the Board of Directors, with a minimum of 03 people, including members of the Board of Directors and external members. Independent members of the Board of Directors/non-executive members of the Board of Directors should constitute the majority in the sub-committee, and one of these members is appointed as Head of the sub-committee by decision of the Board of Directors. The operation of the sub-committee must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of the sub-committee are only valid when approved by a majority of the members attending and voting at the sub-committee meeting.

2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors, or of sub-committees under the Board of Directors, must comply with current legal regulations and the provisions of the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.

CHAPTER IV. BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 15. Board of Directors Meeting

1. The CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS is elected in the first meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the end of the election of that Board of Directors. This meeting is convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In the case where more than one member has the highest and equal number or percentage of votes, the members vote by majority principle to select 01 person among them to convene the Board of Directors meeting.

2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once per quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.

3. The CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS convenes a Board of Directors meeting in the following cases:

- a) At the request of the Supervisory Board or an independent member of the Board of Directors;
- b) At the request of the General Director or at least 05 other managers;
- c) At the request of at least 02 members of the Board of Directors;
- d) Other cases as stipulated in the Company's Charter.

4. The request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, issues to be discussed and decided within the competence of the Board of Directors.

5. The CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS must convene a Board of Directors meeting within 07 working days from the date of receiving the request stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article. In case of failure to convene the Board of Directors meeting as requested, the CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS shall be responsible for any damages incurred by the Company; the person requesting the meeting mentioned in Clause 3 of this Article has the right to replace the CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS in convening the Board of Directors meeting.

6. The CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS or the person convening the Board of Directors meeting must send a meeting invitation no later than 05 working days before the meeting date, unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter. The meeting invitation must clearly specify the time and location of the meeting, the agenda, the issues to be discussed and decided. The meeting invitation must be accompanied by documents to be used at the meeting and the member's ballot.

Notice of Board of Directors meetings may be sent by written invitation, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as stipulated in the Company's Charter, ensuring delivery to each Member of the Board of Directors' registered contact address with the Company.

7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener shall send the meeting invitation and accompanying documents to the members of the Board of Supervisors, just as they would to the Members of the Board of Directors.

Members of the Board of Supervisors have the right to attend Board of Directors meetings; they have the right to discuss but not to vote.

8. A Board of Directors meeting shall proceed when at least three-quarters of the total members are present. If a meeting convened under this provision does not have the required quorum, a second meeting shall be convened within 07 days from the date of the first scheduled meeting. In this case, the meeting may proceed if more than half of the Members of the Board of Directors are present.

9. A Member of the Board of Directors is considered to be present and voting at the meeting in the following circumstances:

- a) Attending and voting in person at the meeting;

- b) Authorizing another person to attend the meeting and vote as stipulated in Clause 11 of this Article;
- c) Attending and voting via video conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
- d) Sending a ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
- e) Sending a ballot by other means as stipulated in the Company's Charter.

10. In the case of sending ballots to the meeting by mail, the ballot must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and must be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than 01 hour before commencement. Ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.

11. Voting at the Board of Directors meeting:

- a. Except as provided in point b, clause 11, Article 15 of these Regulations, each Member of the Board of Directors, or a duly authorized person as stipulated in clause 9 of this Article, present in person at the Board of Directors meeting shall have one (01) vote;
- b. A Member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which that member, or a person related to that member, has an interest, and that interest conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company.
- c. As stipulated in point d, clause 11, Article 15 of these Regulations, should an issue arise at the meeting concerning the interest or voting right of a Member of the Board of Directors which said member does not voluntarily relinquish, the chairperson's ruling shall be final, unless the nature or extent of the Member of the Board of Directors' interest in question has not been fully disclosed;
- d. A Member of the Board of Directors benefiting from a contract as stipulated in point a and point b, clause 6, Article 43 of the Company's Charter shall be deemed to have a significant interest in that contract;

12. Any Member of the Board of Directors directly or indirectly benefiting from a contract or transaction that has been or is intended to be entered into with the Company, and who is aware of their own interest therein, is responsible for disclosing this interest at the first meeting of the Board discussing the execution of such contract or transaction. In cases where the Member of the Board of Directors is unaware of their own or a related person's interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, this Member of the Board of Directors must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after they become aware of having, or potentially having, an interest in the aforementioned transaction or contract.

Members must attend all Board of Directors meetings. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by a majority of the Board of Directors.

Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors are passed if approved by a majority of the members present (over 50%); in the event of a tie, the final decision rests with the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors has the right to consult the members of the Board of Directors in writing to pass Board Resolutions when passing matters under the authority of the Board of Directors in Clause 2, Article 27 of the Company Charter.

Resolutions in writing are passed based on the approval of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors entitled to vote. This Resolution is as effective and valid as a resolution passed at a meeting.

Board of Directors meetings may be held via online conference between members of the Board of Directors when all or some members are in different locations, provided that each participating member can:

- Hear each other Board of Directors member participating and speaking in the meeting;

- Speak to all other participating members simultaneously. Discussion among members can be conducted directly via telephone or other means of communication, or a combination thereof. A Board of Directors member participating in such a meeting shall be deemed "present" at that meeting. The location of the meeting held under this provision is the location with the largest number of Board of Directors members, or the location where the Chairperson of the meeting is present.

Decisions passed in a lawfully organized and conducted meeting take effect immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting but must be confirmed by the signatures of all attending Board of Directors members in the minutes.

Article 16. Minutes of Board of Directors Meetings

1. Board of Directors meetings must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded, video-recorded, or stored in other electronic forms. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in a foreign language, including the following main contents:

- a) Name, address of the headquarters, and enterprise registration code;
- b) Time and location of the meeting;
- c) Purpose, agenda, and content of the meeting;
- d) Full name of each attending member or authorized representative and method of attendance; full name of absent members and reasons for absence;
- e) Matters discussed and voted upon at the meeting;
- f) Summary of each attending member's comments in the order of the meeting proceedings;
- g) Voting results, clearly stating the members who approved, disapproved, and abstained;
- h) Matters approved and the corresponding approval rate;
- i) Full name and signature of the chairperson and the minute-taker, except as provided for in Clause 2 of this Article.

2. In the event that the chairperson or minute-taker refuses to sign the minutes, but if all other members of the Board of Directors present agree to and sign the minutes, and the minutes contain all the content as prescribed in points a, b, c, d, e, f, g, and h of Clause 1 of this Article, then these minutes are valid. The minutes shall clearly state the refusal of the chairperson or minute-taker to sign the minutes. The person signing the minutes is jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the content of the Board of Directors meeting minutes. The Chairperson and the minute-taker are personally liable for any damages incurred by the enterprise due to their refusal to sign the minutes as prescribed by this Law, the Company Charter, and relevant laws.

The Chairperson, the minute-taker, and the signatories of the minutes shall be responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the Board of Directors' meeting minutes.

The minutes of the Board of Directors' meetings and the documents used in the meetings shall be kept at the Company's headquarters.

Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and in a foreign language have equal legal validity. In the event of discrepancies in content between the Vietnamese and foreign language versions, the content of the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

CHAPTER V. REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

Article 17. Annual Reporting

1. At the end of the fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall submit the following reports to the General Meeting of Shareholders:

- a) The Company's business performance report;

- b) Financial statements;
- c) Report evaluating the Company's management and administration;
- d) The Board of Supervisors' appraisal report.

2. The reports stipulated in points a, b, and c of clause 1 of this Article must be sent to the Board of Supervisors for appraisal no later than 30 days prior to the opening date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, unless otherwise stipulated in the Company's Charter.

3. The reports stipulated in clauses 1 and 2 of this Article, the appraisal report of the Board of Supervisors, and the audit report must be kept at the Company's headquarters no later than 10 days prior to the opening date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders who have continuously held shares of the Company for at least one year have the right to personally, or together with a lawyer, accountant, or certified practicing auditor, directly review the reports stipulated in this Article.

Article 18. Remuneration, Bonuses, and Other Benefits of Members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to Members of the Board of Directors based on business results and performance.

2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to work remuneration and bonuses. Work remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the duties of a Member of the Board of Directors and the remuneration rate per day. The Board of Directors shall estimate the remuneration for each member based on the principle of consensus. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

3. The remuneration of each Member of the Board of Directors shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax, shown as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions or Members of the Board of Directors working on subcommittees of the Board of Directors or performing other work outside the scope of the normal duties of a Member of the Board of Directors may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum payment per occasion, salary, commission, percentage of profit, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement for all travel, meal, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses they have incurred in fulfilling their responsibilities as Members of the Board of Directors, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or subcommittees of the Board of Directors.

6. Members of the Board of Directors may be covered by liability insurance purchased by the Company after obtaining approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover the liabilities of Members of the Board of Directors related to violations of law and the Company's Charter.

Article 19. Disclosure of Affiliated Interests

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Company Charter, the disclosure of affiliated interests and affiliated persons of the Company shall comply with the following provisions:

1. The Company must compile and update the list of affiliated persons of the company as prescribed in Clause 23, Article 4 of the Enterprise Law and their corresponding contracts and transactions with the company.

2. Members of the Board of Directors, of the Company must declare to the Company their affiliated interests, including:

a) Name, enterprise code, head office address, business lines of the enterprise in which they own capital contribution or shares; the percentage and time of ownership of such capital contribution or shares;

b) Name, enterprise code, head office address, business lines of the enterprise in which their affiliated persons jointly or separately own capital contribution or shares exceeding 10% of the charter capital.

3. The declaration prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article must be made within 07 working days from the date the affiliated interest arises; amendments and supplements must be notified to the Company within 07 working days from the date of such amendments and supplements.

4. Any Member of the Board of Directors, acting in their personal capacity or on behalf of another person to perform any work within the scope of the Company's business, must explain the nature and content of such work to the Board of Directors and may only proceed upon approval by the majority of the remaining Members of the Board of Directors; if such work is performed without declaration or without the approval of the Board of Directors, all income derived from such activity shall belong to the Company; in case of causing damage to the Company, they shall be liable for the damage and compensation as prescribed by law and the Company Charter.

CHAPTER VI. RELATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 20. Relations among Members of the Board of Directors

1. Relations among Members of the Board of Directors shall be cooperative, and Members of the Board of Directors are responsible for informing each other of related matters in the course of handling assigned tasks.

2. In the course of handling tasks, the assigned Member of the Board of Directors shall take the initiative to coordinate the handling, if there are matters related to the areas under the responsibility of other Members of the Board of Directors. In the event of differing opinions among the Members of the Board of Directors, the Member in charge shall report to the Chairman of the Board of Directors for consideration and decision according to their authority, or organize a meeting, or solicit opinions from the Members of the Board of Directors as prescribed by law, the Company Charter, and these Regulations.

3. In case of re-assignment among the Members of the Board of Directors, the Members of the Board of Directors must hand over related work, records, and documents. This handover must be documented in writing and reported to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Article 21. Relations with the Executive Board

In its management role, the Board of Directors issues resolutions and decisions for the General Director and the executive apparatus to implement. Concurrently, the Board of Directors inspects and supervises the implementation of such resolutions and decisions.

Article 22. Relations with the Board of Supervisors

1. The relationship between the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall be cooperative. The working relationship between the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall be based on the principles of equality and independence, while closely coordinating and supporting each other in the performance of their duties.

Upon receiving inspection reports or consolidated reports from the Board of Supervisors, the Board of Directors shall be responsible for reviewing and directing relevant departments to develop and implement timely corrective actions.

CHAPTER VII. IMPLEMENTATION CLAUSES

Article 23. Effectiveness

Shareholders holding voting shares have the right to combine their voting rights to nominate Members of the Board of Supervisors. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from 5% to less than 10% of the total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 10% to less than 30% may nominate a maximum of two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% may nominate a maximum of three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% may nominate a maximum of four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% may nominate a maximum of five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% may nominate a maximum of six (06) candidates; from 70% to 80% may nominate a maximum of seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to 90% may nominate a maximum of eight (08) candidates.

2. In the event that the number of candidates for the Board of Supervisors through nomination and self-nomination is still insufficient as prescribed in Clause 5, Article 115 of the Enterprise Law, the incumbent Board of Supervisors shall introduce additional candidates. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Supervisors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the law.

Article 8. Procedures for Election, Dismissal, and Removal of Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. The election, dismissal, and removal of members of the Board of Supervisors fall under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The voting for members of the Board of Supervisors must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Supervisors, and the shareholder has the right to cast all or part of their total votes for one or several candidates. The successful candidates for membership of the Board of Supervisors are determined based on the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members specified in the Company's Charter is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Supervisors, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the same number of votes or a selection will be made according to the criteria specified in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.

3. The dismissal and removal of members of the Board of Supervisors by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out by voting. The approval rate shall be implemented according to Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.

Article 9. Cases of Dismissal and Removal of Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss a member of the Board of Supervisors in the following cases:

- a) No longer meeting the standards and conditions to be a member of the Board of Supervisors as prescribed in Article 169 of the Enterprise Law, the Charter, the Corporate Governance Regulations, and these Regulations;
- b) Having submitted a resignation letter and having it approved;
- c) Other cases as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.

2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove a member of the Board of Supervisors in the following cases:

- a) Failure to complete assigned tasks and duties;
- b) Failure to exercise their rights and obligations for six consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
- c) Repeated or serious violations of the obligations of a member of the Board of Supervisors as prescribed by the Enterprise Law and the Company's Charter;
- d) Other cases as resolved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 10. Notification of Election, Dismissal, and Removal of Members of the Board of Supervisors

1. In the event that candidates for the Board of Supervisors have been identified, the Company must publish information related to the candidates at least 10 days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders can learn about these
